

Telephone Co. to ask new rates soon

W. C. Lathen, local manager for the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., confirmed that the company is forced to seek its second increase in rates in over 26 years because "inflation has caused dangerously low earnings which seriously impair the company's ability to give good telephone service to all who need it."

The filing with the Illinois Commerce Commission will be made promptly, he said, since recent third round wage increases have added a stiff downward push to the company's low earnings rate. The increases will have to be at least as much as before, Lathen added.

The manager revealed that the company's Illinois expenses, two-thirds of which are wages, are mounting much faster than revenue, and that immediate relief is needed to re-gain financial health.

"OUR EARNINGS are dangerously low — and getting lower," G. K. McCorkle, company president, said. "Illinois Bell is not sharing in the current prosperity common to many other businesses because, unlike other businesses, the telephone company cannot immediately raise prices when wages and other costs soar. As a regulated business, it must go to the Illinois Commerce Commission, representing the people, for help."

A partial list of improvements since the war, McCorkle revealed, include 500,000 new telephones, dial service for 350,000 more people, 1,287 new switchboard positions, 1,400,000 miles of wire in cable, 77 new building projects and additions. Enough equipment has been added to improve and expand telephone service in every Illinois Bell community, and the list of those waiting for telephones has been slashed from 103,000 to 20,000.

"All this was done in spite of the fact that each new telephone costs more and more, and earns less," McCorkle added. "For example, behind each telephone in 1940 there was an investment of $217. But within the past two years — because of the addition of new plant at today's high costs — this equipment to serve each new telephone is costing well over $300."

"GOOD TELEPHONE service depends upon our continuing to obtain money from investors," McCorkle said. "We can't do this unless we pay investors a fair return for the use of their money. Our present rate of earnings is far too low to make this possible."

Cars collide but drivers unhurt

Two Buicks involved in a collision on State road near Dundee last Thursday night wrought $1,100 worth of damages for the two owners, who were not seriously injured.

A 1935 Buick, owned and driven by George R. Cornforth, Route 1, Palatine, crashed with a 1948 model, driven by W. E. Fox, 603 Vernon, Glencoe, as Cornforth attempted to make a left turn into the driveway of his home on N. State road, near Dundee road.

Cornforth sustained a broken right hand and bruises and minor lacerations of the nose, face and right shoulder. He was released after treatment by Dr. Robert Muench.

Fox, who sustained a broken knee and chest injuries, was taken to Highland Park hospital.

Cornforth was driving north at the time of the accident at 5 p. m., and Fox turned south onto State road from Dundee. The chassis of Fox's auto smashed into the side of the 1935 machine, and both cars were hurled into a ditch, the impact causing Cornforth's auto to overturn. Both men were alone in their cars at the time of the accident.

Damages to the 1948 Buick were estimated at $800, and to the other at $300.

Fox at the time of the crash was driving his car to the Knack Buick garage for servicing. His wife, accompanied by their two children and their friend, was following in another Buick to pick up her husband after he had deposited his car in the garage. She arrived at the scene five minutes after the crash occurred.

PALATINE THEATER GROUP STAGES SECOND PLAY FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Palatine Players, an amateur theatrical group, will present "George Washington Slept Here," at the Palatine high school auditorium, Friday and Saturday evenings, November 12 and 13, beginning at 8 o'clock. This is their second stage venture, having successfully produced "Arsenic and Old Lace" last spring.

Park board to ask new bond issue of $30,000

The board of commissioners of the Arlington Heights Park District, at its meeting held November 3, 1948, agreed to submit to the voters of the village a new proposition for the issuance of bonds in the amount of $30,000 for the purpose of acquiring the land south of the South school as a future park.

The commissioners took cognizance of the fact that its last proposal for the issuance of $120,000.00 of bonds was badly defeated by the voters for a variety of reasons.

Many voters expressed dissatisfaction with the larger bond issue for the reason that it would increase the tax load to be carried by the already overburdened taxpayers. Some voters were in favor of certain of the proposed land purchases and proposed improvements, and were definitely against others. Some felt that the matter as presented was too indefinite while others felt that special favors were shown to persons owning property in the Scarsdale area.

Police give hints to patrol boys on traffic control

A discussion of increasing cooperation between Arlington Heights police department and grade school patrol boys was held Tuesday afternoon, November 9, at South school.

Four grade schools were represented by J. C. Clemans, north; Albert Wangles, south; K. L. Busse, St. Peter Lutheran; and Father H. Rosemeyer, St. James.

The four patrol boy heads met with Officer Oscar Johnson and Superintendent Ralph E. Claubaugh to discuss instruction in traffic control, general traffic conditions as related to safety of school children and the role of the police department in helping sponsor excursions and entertainment to reward the more than 100 patrol boys for service.

A representative of Chicago Motor club the previous week presented awards to the 4 Arlington Heights grade schools for records of no accidents at any school crossings where a school patrol boy was on duty.

A letter from Chicago Motor club, praising 44 patrol boys from North school, 27 from South, and 15 each from St. James and St. Peter, stated in part:

"Owing to the splendid cooperation and planning of a number of agencies, police, schools and traffic engineers, many public and parochial schools have established perfect safety records for the 1947-48 school year."

"The boys and girls of the safety patrol have achieved the record of no injuries or fatalities to school mates by guarding school intersections and guiding classmates to and from school morning, afternoon and after school."

"We believe proper recognition should be made of this fact and have consequently prepared certificates for presentation."

The letter, sent also to patrol boys and girls in Barrington, Palatine, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and Niles, was signed by Charles M. Hayes, Chicago Motor club president.

More than 100 Arlington Heights patrol boys saw the presentation at South school.

At the Tuesday meeting Forest F. Davis represented Mayor Albert Goedke and Wm. Lussman represented Arlington Heights Lions club.

Officer Oscar Johnson, Superintendent R. E. Claubaugh and the four teacher leaders are at present planning a January outing for the boys.

Homer J. Byrd circuit court judge in Indiana

Homer J. Byrd, former Arlington Heights resident, was elected as circuit court judge of Wells county, Indiana in Tuesday's election.

Byrd, a Democrat, served as Cook county commissioner from 1930 to 1934 and superintendent of registration and education under Gov. Horner from 1934 to 1940.

He returned to his home city of Bluffton, Ind., eight years ago to resume the practice of law. He defeated his Republican opponent, George Mock, 5,390 to 3,687.

the opinion that it was not the opportune time, from a cost standpoint, to expend money in order to light the soft ball diamond, or to improve the North-east Park and the Railroad Parks. But as far as the Park Commissioners could determine, very few, if any, voters were against the purchase for future park purposes of the land south of the South school.

The board considers the purchase of this land now, while it is vacant a must for the village of Arlington Heights. Many prominent citizens, businessmen and village officials have advised the board that they agree with this view.

The board is of the opinion that the merits of this land acquisition is such that it would be in its duty to the public if it failed to present this single important proposition to the voters immediately.

If the notices and legal requirements can be completed in time, it is hoped that an election on this issue can be presented to the voters on January 18, 1949.

Girl Scout fund drive ends Saturday

Arlington Heights merchants who this week received letters for contributions to the 1949 Girl Scout administrative fund have "responded gladly and handsomely" to the budget drive, Ed Schumacher, chairman of the drive, announced Wednesday.

More than $150 has been collected through letters during the first two days. No financial report of residence solicitations will be available until the end of the week.

"Every section of the village is being covered by a volunteer worker," Schumacher added, "so we hope to gain our goal of $2,500 by Saturday night."

St. Peter school wins quizdown title

Twenty-six children and a number of parents accompanied the Arlington Heights St. Peter Quizdown team to the Tower Ballroom of the Stevens hotel for a quizdown contest conducted by the Sun-Times and broadcast over Station WJJD Saturday. Jack Rooney of quizdown fame was master of ceremonies.

The winning team was composed of the following children: 4th grade, Audrey Gronert and Rose Marie Meyer; 5th grade, Doris Rudolph and Kenneth Niebur; 6th grade, Janet Winkelmann and Carol Huber. The alternates were: Frederick Mueller, 4th grade; Donald Drewes, 5th grade; and Robert Weisse, 6th grade. St. Peter school received a handsome combination AM and FM radio.

Audrey Gronert and Carol Huber will be given another opportunity to participate in a future broadcast because they were two of the three high point winners of the day.

Faculty members attending the group were Lester Rush and A. W. Obermann.

St. Peter Ladies Aid bazaar today

The annual Christmas Bazaar of the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran Ladies Aid Society will take place today, Thursday, at 2 p. m., in the Lutheran school basement. Always an outstanding event among the activities of St. Peter church, the bazaar this year promises to outdo all previous events.

Members have worked diligently during the past year on their needlecraft and will feature a complete line of crocheted pillow cases, dollies, aprons and other fancy work. Several handmade quilts and rugs will also be on sale. Baked goods and a snack-bar will also prove to be a popular attraction. No tickets will be required for admission to the bazaar.

President of the Ladies Aid is Mrs. Fred J. Meier. In charge of the aprons is Miss Alvina Katz, and supervising the fancy work is Mrs. Elfrida Krueger. Mrs. Wm. Reese will manage the baked goods department, while the management of the snack-bar will be in the hands of Mrs. Ed Grewe.

The public is invited to attend.

Merle Guild Legion party Saturday

The annual Armistice party of the Merle Guild Legion Post No. 208 will be held Saturday night, November 13, at 8:30 at Legion hall in Arlington Heights. Members and their friends are invited.

Any veteran wishing information on Veterans Insurance or the G. I. Bill of Rights, should contact W. I. Lenheim, 808 Patton ave., phone 1824-J. Mr. Lenheim is rehabilitation officer of the Merle Guild Legion Post.

Junior members to be ushers for lecture series

That the community be made acquainted with plans for the 1948-49 Sunday Evening Lecture Series, is one of the purposes of the present contact campaign launched by the lecture committee of the Arlington Heights Woman's club.

Headed by the ticket chairman, Mrs. Walter Hermesdorf and Mrs. George Hauff, and aided by others serving on the lecture committee, every effort is being made to reach the public by means of personal calls, and through promotion in publicity and the distribution of printed flyer hand bills in local schools, and also those in neighboring suburbs, including parochial and public schools, with the utmost co-operation of school officials and teachers.

FOR THE FIRST time in several years of sponsorship, it has been decided to give each high school student who sells 10 season tickets one gift student ticket for the series. Students may sell either adult or student tickets.

Members of the Junior Woman's club, always ready to aid any project of the parent organization, will serve as ushers. Mrs. Norbert F. Leckband is in charge of this.

The Arlington Heights Woman's club has numerous phases of its educational program, including various study group activities, but the Lecture Series is its one civic educational project, open to the public.

Attend education conferences in Chicago

Arlington Heights school officials and board members will attend sessions of a joint conference of Illinois Association of School Boards and Illinois Association of School Administrators November 14, 15 and 16 at Congress hotel, Chicago.

One of the highlights will be an address by Dr. Harold Hunt, Chicago superintendent of schools, at banquet Monday evening at the Casino room.

Supt. R. E. Claubaugh and Principal Leroy Knoepfel and H. L. Slichenmyer, high school boys' counselor, Miss Martha Sapp, grade school counselor, and Mrs. Irene Kreer, speech correctionist, also will attend a meeting on special classes for exceptional children November 12 and 13 at Stevens hotel, Chicago.

The meeting will include a discussion of costs of programs for speech correction and visitation counselors and advisable legislation to improve the special education program.

Superintendent Claubaugh and Principal Knoepfel will discuss mutual problems with other officials at two special meetings.

European candy maker opens shop in Wheeling

A new industry in Wheeling is the Celebration Candy Manufacturing Company, Inc., manufacturers of chocolate molded specialties. Production began two weeks ago on the first item being featured by the company, a small cordial filled chocolate bottle in ten flavors.

Although the manufacturer, Fernand Zieser and his family first came to America from Luxembourg last March, his candies have been enjoyed in America from coast to coast for a long time. Mr. Zieser employed 35 persons in his candy shop in Luxembourg, Avenue de la Liberte, where his candy trademark was "Liquor Bottles for You."

HIS PRODUCT was a high grade confection, liquor filled, and gift boxes of his candies were sold to all parts of the world. Among famous persons to receive a large gift box was Princess Elizabeth of England at the time of her wedding. Mr. Zieser's candy shop was popular with American Servicemen who visited Luxembourg and gift boxes of the tiny "Liquor Bottles for You" were mailed to every state in the union.

It may have been the popular favor with which his candy was received that helped him make his decision to come to the United States and to establish his business here. It was a disappointment to learn that a federal law prohibited the use of liquor as a candy filling.

However, upon investigation, Mr. Zieser found a good substitute in fruit and essence cordials which he is now using, and his "Celebration Bottles" are still a first-class confection. At present Mr. Zieser is employing ten women in his pilot plant in the former Frank Welflin residence on Dundee Road, and is looking forward to considerable expansion. The company has a sales office in Chicago and already has many orders from well known shops.

AMERICA is not entirely a new country to Mr. Zieser, whose mother was raised in Milwaukee, Wis. The daughter of John Ferring Mesenbourg, she

Are you sure you have the right number?

Fifty Arlington Heights householders this week will be testing their memories as they try to remember new digits assigned to their homes.

Village Clerk Forrest Davis has notified the residents, half of them in Stonegate and others in Arlington Park and Scarsdale, that changes were necessary to eliminate present confusion because of so many wrong street numbers.

With the rapid expansion of new homes in some sections, it has become necessary to change some house numbers that owners have used for years, but Davis added "the homeowners are cooperating, and eventually everyone will appreciate the corrections."

Many wrong numbers are the result of new home owners selecting a number that appealed to them, or by simply using the lot number. At any rate, the village has a definite street numbering plan, and the village clerk has the duty of assigning correct street numbers.

Anyone in Arlington Heights who has a reason to doubt his street number is correct, may get an official and correct designation by applying in writing or in person at the clerk's office. It is necessary to have the legal description when making application for house numbers.

With the telephone directory going to press about November 15, Davis is hopeful all address requiring corrections will be completed in time to have correct addresses listed in the directory.

Talent review to be presented at youth center

Members of Ramble Inn, Arlington Heights youth center, will present a variety show "Ramble Inn Review" Saturday night, November 13, at Arlington Heights field house at 8:30 p.m.

Youth center members will present the show for their own amusement. It will be directed by Don Neumann, assisted by Ken Bork.

"Parents, always welcome to drop in at the youth center whenever they wish, are of course invited to witness this show also," Bob Campbell, adult counselor, stated.

A partial list of the acts to be presented will include Bob Ragland, pianist; Kent Lihme, singer; Julie Hinds, Judy Gilman and Blythe Morrow, acrobats; Marlene Plant, marimba; Jack Dargrey, magician-mental; and Vernon Wandersee, singer.

Doors of the youth center will open at 7:30 p.m.

came to America with her parents in 1878 at the age of two months, and returned to Luxembourg with them in 1900. As a young boy, Mr. Zieser heard much of the U. S. A. and especially the midwest.

Mr. Zieser holds a Masters Degree in commercial and financial science from the Catholic university of Louvain, Belgium. Mrs. Zieser's maiden name was Lucy Straus, only daughter of Prosper Straus, whose family for 200 years were owners of the Grand Hotel de Cerf at Echternach, Luxembourg. Echternach is the burial place of St. Willibrod, the Irish monk, who, with 12 other monks, came from Ireland in the 7th century to Christianize Luxembourg and surrounding countries. He became the first Bishop of Utrecht, Holland, and later was canonized by the church.

Each year a pilgrimage of admirers of St. Willibrod, 40,000 strong, flock to Echternach to participate in a spring procession. Among the casualties of the war was the famed Basilica of Echternach, as well as the Grand Hotel de Cerf, which were leveled on Christmas night 1944 during the Battle of the Bulge.

ALTHOUGH the entire population of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg is only 300,000, it holds the 7th place in the world in iron production, and is rated well in international circles. As most Luxembourgers have relatives in America, the American doughboy found a warm welcome there.

Mr. and Mrs. Zieser and their two daughters, Justine and Monique, arrived in New York in March and came to Chicago, located in Evanston temporarily. Through Christ Weiler of Twin Nurseries, whose brother Mr. Zieser knew well in Luxembourg, he learned of the Welflin property which was for sale, and proved attractive for his purpose and in June the family came to Wheeling to live.

Daughter Justine is a freshman in Arlington Heights high school, and Monique is a seventh grade pupil in Wheeling school.

More than 1,600 howl at Lions show antics

Net proceeds from the "Everybody's Here" variety show will total more than $400 when a final count is made, William Lussman, Lions club president, reported. Part of the proceeds will go to Girl and Boy Scout permanent camp funds.

"Lion members had a hilarious time putting on the show," Lussman stated, "and hope that audiences enjoyed themselves as much as the cast did. The club wishes to thank the public for its patronage."

The club also appreciates the help of all non-Lions who participated in the show."

by HELEN CHRISON

Arlington Heights audiences on three successive nights last week howled lustily as local businessmen, powdered and wigged, romped through two hours of a Lions sponsored masquerade party titled "Everybody's Here."

The star-studded stage show of uninhibited antics was topped by revelation of Miss Arlington Heights, who actually was two people. Bill Franke, ex-Alderman, was Queen of Beauty Thursday and Friday nights and George Schimming won the beauty parade Saturday night.

Although other beauty contests in the show's finale wore elaborate headresses and slinky gowns, their sophistication was squelched by the artlessness of the chubby, blond, curly-headed contestant from Arlington Heights portrayed by Franke and Schimming.

Norman Dewey, black-faced as Uncle Joe, held the spotlight as he sang "Old Black Joe" and "Ol' Man River" in a rich, deep bass, and the Harmony fours, composed of high school teachers, were equally popular as they recalled the 1890's with "Evalina" and "The Old Quartet."

Henry Nichols as Hiram Komikal had a strenuous part in the show as he tried to maintain order among his six kids who played football over the heads of the audience and clambered over stage scenery at the sight of Bruno, the trained bear (John Randag).

A. Johnson, dressed in a glorified playsuit as Toodles Komikal, baby of the family, almost stole the show as he made a hurried exit down the center aisle during the performance accompanied by his mother Evalina (Aubrey Neville).

HERB KOLLE, as Jackie Abernathy, a local yokel bawled before belief, claimed a share of audience applause as he wound

Lions plan 'ladies night' November 23

The November 16 meeting of Arlington Heights Lions club has been postponed to November 23, when Lions will hold Ladies night, President William Lussman announced Wednesday.

Ladies night dinner will be served at 6:45 p. m. at Lutheran school basement. Reservations must be made in advance with John Randag. Tickets are $2.00 for members and $3 for guests. Entertainment will be provided. "The banquet will be a real Thanksgiving dinner," Lussman stated.

Distribution centers speed Xmas packages

Local residents who are planning to send clothing and food to needy Germans for Christmas can effect delivery in the American zone within three weeks.

This information was revealed recently by Miss Madonna Annen who was stationed for two years with occupation forces in Berlin, Wiesbaden and Nuernberg.

Packages, addressed to the New York postmaster, will go through American mails to three chaplain centers, where religious faiths work together in giving bundles to needy citizens.

The addresses are: Berlin Military Post, APO 742, % Postmaster, New York, N. Y.; Headquarters U. S. A. F. E., APO 633, % Postmaster, New York, N. Y.; Nuernberg Military Post, APO 696, % Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

Articles especially needed are shoes, clothing, soap, canned grease and chocolate for Christmas.

Boxes to specified families in Berlin, Nuernberg or Wiesbaden in the American zone can have expedited delivery if a letter to the chaplain accompanies the package.

up a recitation of "When Pa Soaks His Feet" by pulling off his shoes and socks.

Sally Greshner as Lady Featherbone, wore a tight-fitting deep mauve dinner gown with a knee-high slit, which necessitated his being maneuvered to the stage by Sir Cedric Featherbone (Bill Lathen).

Marvin Prellberg and Paul Immel as straight men, kept the show moving smoothly without letting antics of the other players upset their poise.

Carl Ewert, as president of the Woman's club, and Dewey as representative from League of Women voters, also kept the show on a comparatively sane plane as they received visitors to the home-week celebration.

E. J. Harris, David Zimmerman and Joe Brehm almost stopped the show as they pranced down the center aisle in two-piece playsuits and did a girly-girly stilt to the strains of "How'm I Doin' Hey Hey."

EDWARD WOLF, as henpecked Papa Cohen was finally cajoled by his wife Mamma (C. S. Becker) to say his piece. Papa lost his self-consciousness as he sang about going to Abie Goldstein's wedding to the tune of "Put on your Old Gray Bonnet," and he didn't need any prodding when volunteers were sought to take measurements of beauty contestants.

Walter Kroeber and Steve Csanadi, the former in a brown, French-bang type wig and the latter under blond headgear, and both in scanty ballet costumes of pink marquisette, drifted up the center aisle in affected ballet poses. The local architect and electrical appliances businessman tripped gracefully across the stage and did several somewhat modified leaps and spins in a side-splitting ballet routine.

Dr. Morris Virnig, garbed in a plaid shirt, leaned casually toward the mike and gave an effortless rendition of "Melancholy Baby" a la Bing Crosby; Dr. H. G. Dunn and LeRoy Huebner interpreted Alice Faye and Kate Smith appeal as they recognized and hugged old "boy-own friends" in the audience; J. D. Bryson subbed for Harry James on the trumpet, and John Randag was a convincing Al Jolson.

Girls of the Gay Nineties (Virgil Horath, Robert Wilke, Clifford Crane and Fred Jasper) hustled-bustled across the apron of the stage and sang "I'm Dreaming now of Willie" to the tune of "Listen to the Mocking Bird." For an encore, they obliged with "Around the Corner."

Kindergarten authority next PTA speaker

Mrs. Charles W. Balch, field secretary of National Kindergarten association, will speak at the next meeting of Arlington Heights PTA Tuesday, November 16, at 8 p. m. at North school.

Her topic will be "Families that play together stay together." Mrs. Balch has been active in many civic groups and is well-qualified to present this subject.

Following the talk, the school legislation committee of the PTA will present a new film entitled "In Illinois Schools," prepared by Illinois Education association.

Some major school needs of Illinois and pending legislative problems will be brought out in the educational short. Miss Laura Grothe of the school staff will present a commentary on the film.

Sixth grade mothers will serve refreshments during the social hour. Mrs. Donald Frisk, hospitality committee, Mrs. Arden Scott, North school mother and Mrs. Rowland Laughlin, South school mother, will welcome new members and help them get acquainted.

Arlington Heights PTA has made plans to cooperate with the Save a Child federation by holding Bundle day November 17 and 18.

Clean used clothes, children's shoes and low-heeled adult shoes are needed and bundles may be brought to the classrooms on these dates.

Mrs. Earl B. Cox, chairman of the welfare committee, stated this is an opportunity for everyone in the community to help keep at least one needy child warm this winter.

Arlington Heights residents also are reminded of the annual book fair sponsored by the PTA to be held at South school December 2.

Palatine business men ask removal of parking meters

At the largest and best attended meeting of businessmen ever held in Palatine, the local merchants went on record as opposed to parking meters and asked the village board to remove them.

The businessmen gathered together Sunday morning in the display room of Sullivan Appliance and urged adoption by the village of one-hour parking regulations, strictly enforced, at least for a trial period.

THE MERCHANTS cited as the reason for their action, the serious loss of sales and continuous nuisance and aggravation caused by the meters. They felt such "armless bandits" were keeping customers from their stores.

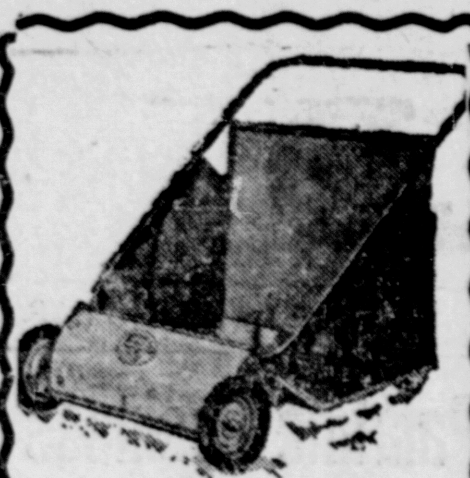

Those present were asked for an expression of opinion, and the majority thought that one hour parking, properly enforced, would solve the parking problem in Palatine as well as it has in Arlington Heights.

AS A RESULT of the action at this meeting, it is regarded as certain that a chamber of commerce or some other businessmen's organization will be formed to take up other problems of the merchants.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 7, was:
"ADAM AND FALLEN MAN"
The Golden Text was:
"There went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (Gen. 2:6, 7).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible:
"And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. . . . So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him. . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good" (Gen. 1:26, 27, 31).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"Popular theology takes up the history of man as if he began materially right, but immediately fell into mental sin; whereas revealed religion proclaims the Science of Mind and its formations as being in accordance with the first chapter of the Old Testament, when God, Mind, spoke and it was done. . . . The standard of perfection was originally God and man. Has God taken down His own standard, and has man fallen? . . . Anybody, who is able to perceive the incongruity between God's idea and poor humanity, ought to be able to discern the distinction (made by Christian Science) between God's man, made in His image, and the sinning race of Adam" (pp. 557, 470, 345).

A Lecture on Christian Science
Entitled
Christian Science: The Way of Freedom
by Arthur Perrow, C.S. of Chicago, Illinois

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, was given Oct. 31, 1948 at Arlington Heights Township High School under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Arlington Heights, Ill.

The lecturer spoke in part as follows:
Everything said in this lecture is intended to point the way more clearly to God, divine Love, the omnipresent, omnipotent, and omniscient; that is, the all-present, all-powerful, and all-wise Spirit, Truth, who is closer to each one of us than all else in the world.

Today we have the Bible and the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, both of which volumes are much beloved by Christian Scientists. Through the revelation of Truth as now presented to the world in Christian Science, everyone may read and understand the messages of the Bible and comply with its loving invitations for men to accept their esoteric relationship with God here and now, and become aware of their God-ordained freedom in the truth.

The most important and yet the least understood subject, and the one most taken for granted, without much inquiry, is that of God, His nature and purpose. To one who does not understand God, to one who is unacquainted with Him, Deity seems vague, distant, and uncertain.

If men really understood God instead of having mere belief in some kind of supreme being, the resultant behavior would dispel all the confusion and bewilderment of the hour. To know and demonstrate the fact that God is the one infinite, divine intelligence would silence the human and mesmeric tendencies toward strife, hatred, wars, and other disorders.

The human senses doubt such infinite presence; but even in the midst of confusion or fear, God's presence and power have not changed, for He is All and everywhere. The Psalmist put it, "If I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there" (Ps. 139:8), meaning, of course, that the confusion mortal mind generates—its bewilderment, fears, and anxieties—can be expelled if we accept the divine presence, infinite Mind, as the only consciousness.

God is never absent, regardless of the evidence of the physical senses to the contrary. God is of purer eyes than to hold evil" (Hab. 1:13) are the words of Habakkuk. Divine Love's ever-available benefactions heal, uplift, and sustain men by showing their true being as sons of God. The relationship of Father and son is never really altered, never changed for a moment. The real man, spiritual and eternal, the only man there is, dwells in the divine presence—in Mind, Soul, Spirit, secure from all claims of materiality. To know this means freedom from fears and doubts; it means realization of good and harmony which mortal sense cannot impair. John's statement that "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (I John 4:16) is basic. To dwell in God, who is Love, means a conscious calm and peace.

Divine Mind's purpose for everyone from everlasting to everlasting is good—to have him accept his unchangeable identification with the eternal. Carnal impulses are always unreal, untrue, uncreated, ungodlike, unmanlike, and unnecessary, because they are not from God, good, the source of all that is true and everlasting.
It is natural, because of the eternal relationship between God and man for us to realize that all our daily needs are at hand. The world today is far from being unified in its concept of Christ Jesus, the great master Christian—his purpose, his teachings and their usefulness. Jesus was a human whose name was similar to many other men of his day, but the Christ was and is the truth which Jesus taught and demonstrated and which he referred to when he said, "Before Abraham was, I am" (John 8:58).
A study of Jesus' words and works in the light of Christian Science makes logical and demonstrable the great teachings Jesus left for his followers. His instructions are clear, unmistakable, and positive, and all based on his understanding of God and His law of harmony, available to all.
Man, made in the image and likeness of God, the real man, is forever spiritual, sinless, ageless, deathless. It is this basic view of man which is included in John's statement, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God" (I John 3:9), free. This knowledge of God is the way of freedom—freedom from fear, from sin and sickness, freedom from limitation and lack. And so, as Mrs. Eddy lovingly states in Science and Health (p. 227), "Citizens of the world, accept the 'glorious liberty of the children of God,' and be free!"

Prayer is always individual and never need be unanswered. There is no such thing as unanswered prayer, when one prays aright with both faith and understanding, because the response is already established, awaiting one's acceptance, one's acknowledgment of the divine and only presence which supplies all good.

Prayer does not change the purpose of divine Love. Prayer is knowing the truth as it exists eternally, the truth which Christ Jesus referred to as our source of freedom. Freedom from what? From all the false physical sense testimonies, from all the ills of the flesh. Realization of divine Love's supreme and infinite presence will solve any problem of the world today.

Healing the sick is the application of the law of God, which adjusts all things according to the divine Principle of true, harmonious, and everlasting being. The human mind questions healing through spiritual means, but in this as well as in other manifestations of the infinite power of good it may be stated in Biblical language, "The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (I Cor. 2:14).

Christian Scientists have a deep feeling of love and gratitude for the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, whose great gift to the world can never be dimmed or obscured. Her zeal and love for all mankind, and above all, her love for God and His Christ, led to her discovery of Christian Science, the full revelation of the glorious truth which Jesus said would make us

Local Youth to Attend National F. F. A. confab

Sunday morning at 3:00 a. m. Merlin Wille and Donald Linne-man of Arlington Heights will leave on a bus with thirty-three other Future Farmers and four agriculture teachers to attend the National Convention of Future Farmers of America at Kansas City, Mo. The local boys will be official delegates from Arlington Heights high school chapter. J. D. Bryson, agriculture teacher, has made the necessary arrangements for the 5-night stay at the Hotel Continental. Twenty thousand are expected so the town's facilities will be none too much for the youthful conveners.

Besides the regular business of the convention the boys will be well entertained. Henri Bonnet, French ambassador to the United States, will be one of the special speakers. A national F. F. A. band of more than 100 pieces, and a 100-voice glee club, each made up of Future Farmers from all sections of the U. S. will be featured. As in the past, it is expected that movie and radio stars such as Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen, Mickey Rooney, and others will be on hand for very special entertainment.

When the boys return it is expected that they will inject new life and enthusiasm into the activities of the local chapter. Both are officers this year and will be eligible for active membership next year.

Scouts honor founder at service

Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect Girl Scouts and leaders started Girl Scout week with a Scout's own service Sunday, October 31, at South school. The group posed during the candlelight service at 3 p. m. Adults standing from left to right are Mrs. Alva Meyer, president of program committee of Arlington Heights; Mrs. Louise Roy on program committee of Arlington Heights; Mrs. Frederick Holderman, chairman of program committee of Arlington Heights; Mrs. J. A. Farmer, program committee chairman of Mt. Prospect; Mrs. Kenneth Davies and Mrs. Russell Holmes, on Mt. Prospect program committee; Mrs. Morris Viernig, executive director of Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect councils; and Mrs. Fred Tice, president of Mt. Prospect council. The scouts are from Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect troops.

Ramblin' Around with Ramble Inn

by PHOEBE ANN ELLIS

Although the excitement of the Halloween party is over, Ramble Inn members are finding lots of other Y. C. activities to keep them busy.

A ping pong tournament will begin immediately for all those who like to play against competition. The rules are as follows: (1) the player must lose three out of five games to be eliminated, (2) Regulation rules will be in effect for all games, (3) Competition will be on a fresh-soph, junior-senior basis, (4) final sixteen winners will be matched according to ability, not according to class in school, and (5) the contest will be entirely a "singles" tournament. Bernard Brock is managing the contest, and in case a dispute over rules should come about, players should consult him. Sign up at the Y. C. soon, if you are a fiend for ping pong. There are big prizes awarded to the winners, so don't miss out.

Another big Ramble Inn activity is on the agenda! This time it's something new—an all-star Amateur Show! It will be staged upstairs at the Field House this Saturday, Nov. 13. Beginning promptly at 8:00 p. m., the show will star Emilia Sylvestre, talented pianist; Vern Wondersee, popular singer; and Sally Young, who will do a novelty number. Also, a great magician will mystify you with amazing tricks, brought from the dark ages. President Ken Bork reports that all the members will enjoy this extravaganza, and that many more stars will be featured, too numerous to mention. So remember to come to the Y. C. Saturday night!

Fenders creased

Henry J. Schuetz and Frank Jahn, both of Arlington Heights, survived a Plymouth-Chevrolet accident Friday afternoon with only creased fenders to their autos.

Schuetz's car, which was parked on the north side of Davis street, between State road and Evergreen, collided with that of Jahn as the former pulled out of a parking space, police reported.

Cause of the accident was attributed to wet pavement and rain.

Schaumburg Ladies Aid bazaar November 28

The Ladies Aid of St. Peters Ev. Lutheran church, Schaumburg, will hold their annual bazaar November 28, at 1:30, at the West school basement. A barbecue, cake and pie luncheon will highlight the affair.

AAUW members to see play preview

A growth in the membership of Des Plaines branch of American Association of University Women has made it virtually impossible to hold meetings in member's homes.

Future meetings will be held in Trinity Lutheran church, Graceland and Prairie avenues. A preview of the play "But Not Goodbye" will be presented at the November meeting, Mrs. G. E. Concidine, fellowship chairman, announced. Bai Matabay Plang, an A. A. U. W. international student from the Philippines, who is studying social service at University of Chicago school of social work, will be guest speaker.

For 58 years, since 1890, the fellowship program carried on by the national organization has helped women like Bai Plang conduct projects in advanced research.

The original fellowship carried a stipend of $500; for the coming academic year of 1949 to 1950 the association will offer 27 fellowships with stipends totalling $42,000. Proceeds of the play sponsored by the A. A. U. W. December 10-11 will be sent to the fellowship fund.

Last year total national membership throughout the United States raised $103,358 for fellowship and international grants. A new fellowship has been added through the recent bequest of $40,000 from the late Miss Mary Andersen, Madison, Wisconsin, and constitutes the largest single gift made to A. A. U. W. fellowships to date. It brings the association's million dollar fellowship fund to $953,250, within one-tenth of completion.

Members of the new Des Plaines branch, which is beginning its second year, are eager to play a part in the final effort to reach the million-dollar mark. Each member has tickets to sell for the theatre guild promotion, and everyone who purchases a ticket will be doing his part to help bring students to our country for advanced research under the A. A. U. W. fellowship program.

A Youth Conference to be held at the Chicago Municipal Court will be attended by Lois Kroeber, Jim Brown, Walter Page, and Walter Goebbert. These students will meet with other representatives from all the Chicago area schools to elect officers. During the afternoon each representative will participate in a panel discussion on the problems of youth.

surprise assembly Nov. 5. He beamed as the students, teachers and office help sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Then Mr. Wallace Grace gave a most entertaining history of our popular principal's life. It would seem that Mr. Knoepfel led an extremely funny existence, for Mr. Grace kept his audience in gales of laughter as he related the important events. In saying thanks for the celebration, Mr. Knoepfel remarked that he was really enjoying his "30th" birthday. He explained that he asks his students for just one present, a football victory, and that in his 23 years as an educator he has almost always received it. Unfortunately all good things come to an end, so the cheering students were dismissed to their first period classes.

A wire-recorder, phonograph, and FM radio combination was recently purchased by the school. It will be used by the band, chorus, speech, radio workshop, and English classes, as well as for speech correction work.

Palatine pig in Ice Follies show

A Hampshire boar pig from the Longacres Farm Pure Bred herd was furnished to the Ice Follies now appearing at the Chicago Arena, to take part in a farm scene in the show. This pig is eight weeks old and will be used by the show for about two months, during which period it will be viewed by approximately 250,000 people and will travel thousands of miles. After it becomes too large to be used in the show it will be returned to Longacres Farm and sold for breeding purposes.

The entire cast of the Ice Follies admired the pig so much that one of the owners, Oscar Johnson, requested the pig be named after him and registered as such.

In Appreciation

The response to our grand opening last Saturday by the people of Arlington Heights and neighboring areas exceeded our highest hopes. We want to thank each of you personally who were present to make our opening such a grand success. We are glad that you approved of our new floral shop and of course when you think of flowers, we want you to think of us. In values, in service, in convenience . . . we want you to feel that you are getting the best.

The Planter Lamp went to Dr. J. A. Cousins whose name was drawn by Mrs. Stuart Dueger.

Costumes give 'spirit' to parade

Grade school children in Arlington Heights celebrated Halloween Friday afternoon with dress-up parades at North and South schools.

Upper photo: Miss Mimi Reeb and Mrs. Agnes Skadberg, first grade teachers, and Miss Marian Elliott, acting principal at North school adjust costumes for Dutch girl Pat Walt, Hawaiian girl Patricia Dettmann, Fireman Roger Krambeer, Cowboy Billie Spomer and Clown Kathy Damerow. Lower photo: At South school, Fay Thomas and Phyllis Rohde, third and fifth grade teachers, give final touches to costumes of an unidentified ghost, Mickey Mouse Benny Bart and Indian Jack Bauer.

Plenty of pheasants, but not enough room for hunters

The majority of Sportsmen's clubs over the State report better stocks of pheasant and quail this year than for several past seasons. There are spots where the outlook is not so good and the report on rabbits doesn't sound too favorable. First reports from duck hunters indicate that there will be pretty good hunting for this specie of game, if one can find a place to set out his decoys for less than $25.00 per day.

Although it will be much easier on the hunter the game will be hard hit by the open fields this good harvesting season provides. A circuit around the State indicates that most soy beans and corn are likely to be out of the fields by November 11. The noon opening may act as a life saver especially for pheasants as the first guns won't catch them still on the roost. By the next morning they may have been scared enough to make their shooting a little more of a sporting proposition.

Travel pictures at Presbyterian club next week Friday

Dr. C. A. Cameron, traveler and illustrated lecturer, is scheduled to present some of his famous motion pictures next week at the meeting of the Y. M. C. - 70 club of the Presbyterian church in Arlington Heights. He will show the film on Guatemala entitled "The Land of the Smiling Faces," with a background of carefully selected native music.

Dr. Cameron was secured through the good graces of his daughter, Mrs. Harrie Hall, who is active in the Y. M. C. - 70 Club. The group desired to share the program, and through its president, William B. Salzman, invited the Mr. and Mrs. Club to join them. President Clarence Davis accepted on behalf of the senior group.

The joint meeting will be held the third Friday, November 19, at the church hall. A potluck dinner will start at 6:45. However, the hostess committees of both clubs will provide the meat—baked ham, coffee and dessert. The diners are asked to bring a vegetable dish, a salad, or rolls, as well as their own service dishes and silverware.

The hostesses are: Mesdames Herbert Mahomed, Marion Born and Forest Bass for the Y. M. C. - 70; and Mesdames Kenneth R. Gregory, George A. Sharp and Oscar C. Kurtz for the Mr. and Mrs. Club.

All public hunting areas are booked full for the entire season. The popularity of these areas indicates that the demand for more is going to grow by leaps and bounds. They serve a very good purpose in giving the hunter from the large metropolitan areas a place to go and assuring the man who has little time to spend of a good chance at game. It also will take the pressure off rural areas.

THE CONTINUED increase in the number of hunters is rapidly cutting down the available hunting areas. If more and more ground is posted each year it won't be long till the decent sportsman will have to hang up his shotgun forever. The Federation of Sportsmen's clubs has long advocated the first principle in good sportsmanship, "get permission before you hunt."

A more tangible way of enforcing the principle of getting permission is found in the planting of trespass proof hedges. Farmers have found that they can cut down trespass very considerably by planting Multiflora rose hedges around their properties. It not only stops sheep and hogs but makes the game hog come to the gate to get in.

Insecticide Precaution
Insecticide users are warned to read the caution labels carefully. They should know just what they are using, and determine how, when and for what purpose it should be used. It is foolhardy to take a chance on ruining a valuable farm product.

Need Camp Fire leaders

A call for more women to serve as leaders for Camp Fire Girls was issued recently by Marjorie Cooper, executive director of the Chicago Area Council, who pointed out that the current membership campaign has resulted in an increased number of Camp Fire groups.

Since the campaign opened September 15 more than 1,200 girls have applied for membership, and this number will be greatly increased by November 30 when the drive ends.

Many women have already signed up as group leaders, but the increase in leaders has not been in proportion to the number of new Camp Fire Girls. The organization serves girls between the ages of 7 and 17 and prospective leaders may select the age level with which they prefer to work.

Miss Kathleen Price, field director for Arlington Heights, will be in Arlington Heights on the second Tuesday of each month. Anyone wishing to lead a Camp Fire group in Arlington should contact Miss Price at the Chicago office, Andover 3-6218 for further information.

Anniversary dinner fetes nurses' club

Among the many active organizations benefiting Arlington Heights is the Nurses' club, which, though small in membership, has willing workers available when a helping hand is needed.

Friday evening the Nurses' club met for its tenth anniversary dinner, which was held at Sally's. This dinner was also a special tribute to Miss Martha Jackson, former Arlington Heights community nurse, who founded the club. Miss Jackson died in 1943.

Besides the active members present at the dinner a number of guests also attended. They were: Mrs. Ruth Hertel, Mrs. Betty Ward, Mrs. Lois Goldsberry, and a young graduate nurse, Miss M. Ford, daughter of Mrs. Russell Ford, who is a past president of the club.

The club has grown from a membership of 16 nurses to 35, all of whom are active members. Some do a great deal more than others because circumstances in the home permit it, but the others do their bit, all of which makes the Nurses' club one of the outstanding organizations in Arlington Heights.

Three of the nurses are working in village or school fields; one in another medical field; and others are doing hourly or part time nursing, with a few being able to take extensive cases.

The club has donated to many clinics and health organizations, to Hull House of Chicago, to nursing work in India and China, and to various other civic projects, besides forming a scholarship fund for nurse's training.

During the evening a history of the club was given by Mrs. Lillian Peters, secretary. Mrs. Helen McAuliffe, president, gave the roll call and told the memoirs of Martha Jackson. Miss Margaret Johnston, chairman for the evening, gave the opening speech telling the purpose of the occasion.

Arlington couple wed in double ring service

A double ring, candlelight ceremony Saturday at the Methodist Meeting House, united in marriage Miss Jean Ann Gieseke and Robert Carr Boeckh, both of Arlington Heights.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gieseke and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boeckh. White chrysanthemums and candelabra decorated the altar before which the couple repeated their vows after Rev. M. J. Von-drack.

Miss Florence Lunning sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Richard Everett, organist. Mr. Gieseke gave his daughter in marriage.

A gown of French ice blue slipper satin was chosen by the bride for her main wedding attire. The dress was styled with a drop shoulder neckline of matching marquisette and a bouffant overskirt of marquisette, tied in back with a huge bustle bow. Her lace edged marquisette veil was fastened to a Juliet cap of slipper satin. Matching elbow length gloves and a heart-shaped bouquet of gardenias edged with white sweetpeas, completed her outfit.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Alvin Johnson, who wore a dress of yellow slipper satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, having round-neckline, and full skirt tied in back with bustle bow. She had on a skull cap of matching satin and carried a bouquet of yellow and white button mums, which dropped cascades of white ribbon tied with mums.

Mrs. Lloyd Duzell and Miss Dorothy Clem were bridesmaids.

They were dressed in ice blue and pink satin respectively, and wore matching headbands trimmed with feathers. Their dresses were styled as the matron of honor's and they carried the same kind of flowers.

The bridegroom had Ralph Hull as his best man, with Lloyd Duzell and David DeJonge acting as ushers.

Mrs. Gieseke, the bride's mother, was groomed in a steel grey crepe dress, with pink feathered hat, pink elbow length gloves, and pink luster pearl necklace, set off by grey suede shoes and bag. Pink roses made up her corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a cinnamon brown crepe dress studded with rhinestones, set off with brown accessories, including a winter white fur felt hat trimmed with cinnamon brown feathers and veiling. Her corsage was made up of tulips and roses.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held at Legion hall, with 100 guests attending. Decorations for the buffet table were designed by Mrs. William G. Franke, of Chicago. Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Boeckh and daughter, Kathy, of International Falls, Minn.; Misses Ruth and Helen McCloskey, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. F. E. Lee and Mrs. Lotta Varty of Sycamore, Ill.; and Mrs. Enoch Carver, of Green Lake, Wis.

The couple are motoring to Lexington, Kentucky for their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Boeckh will be at home about November 20 at 604 S. Belmont, Arlington Heights.

Rev. M. A. Chappel guest speaker

Rev. Merlyn A. Chappel, D. D., Secretary for Promotion for the Board of National Missions, will speak Wednesday evening, November 17, at the Arlington Hts. Presbyterian church, at 7:45.

Richard Stinson takes De Kalb girl as bride

Miss Betty Carolyn Oberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Oberg, of DeKalb, became the bride of Richard Stinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stinson, of Palatine, November 4. Rev. Erland W. Borg, pastor, officiated.

The wedding took place before a large group of relatives at the First Lutheran church in DeKalb. Autumn flowers were used as decorations. Mrs. Borg was the organist, playing several nuptial numbers as well as the processional and recessional.

Attendants were Donna Emery and Sidney Felzer, both of DeKalb. The bridesmaid wore a gray suit and corsage of red roses.

For her wedding and going away, the bride chose a wine colored suit, accessories to harmonize, and her corsage was of white roses.

The bride's mother wore a royal blue dress set off with carnations, and the groom's mother wore a black dress with a corsage of white carnations.

A reception for the young couple was held at the home of the bride's parents, where fall flowers were again used for decorations. Candles and a large decorated wedding cake accented the bridal table theme.

Mr. and Mrs. Stinson left on a honeymoon trip to New York City, Niagara Falls, Baltimore Maryland, and Washington, D. C. Upon their return November 14 they will be at home in Palatine at 206 East Chicago avenue.

The bride attended DeKalb grade school and graduated from the DeKalb Township high school. She has been employed in the office of the registrar at the Northern Illinois State Teacher's college. Mr. Stinson graduated from the Palatine Township high school and later attended Northern Illinois State Teacher's college for two years. He at present is employed by the Illinois Bell Telephone company at Evanston.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from Chicago, Melrose Park, Evanston, DeKalb and Palatine.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy in our late bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. John Umbdenstock Charles and Ben Babcock Mae Jones.

Care of Fleeces

Wool is the source of one-third of the income of sheep. Correct fleece care, then, means more money for the flock owner. In shearing wool keep it dry, and keep fleeces clean. Separate tags and wet covered locks from the fleece. Tie fleeces individually with wool twine. All fleeces, such as black, burry or dead wool should be sorted and packed separately.

Virginia is well known to the community's younger set having attended the Arlington Heights Township high school, graduating in June 1948. Mr. and Mrs. Long plan to reside with the Groom's parents at Glenview.

American Legion Auxiliary notes

November 1 Merle Guild Unit No. 208 American Legion Auxiliary of Arlington Heights held a business meeting at Legion hall.

The November monthly unit contributed to various projects, namely: birthday fund for orphans, Lydia Home, parties for orphans at Normal, veterans at Hines and North Shore hospital, craft shop, vaporefin, insulin, Christmas gifts, and district convention. The checks amounted to $61.95.

Mrs. Eleanor Taylor, chairman of the rehabilitation committee, reported taking two suits, overcoat, cigarettes, shaving cream, lotion, tooth paste, and five tickets to entertainments contributed by Mr. Taylor.

Before taking anything to the ward it has to be taken to the receiving office where it is inspected and the money value credited to the unit. Mrs. Taylor said that the unit on the last visit was credited with contributions amounting to nearly $100.

The activities chairman, Mae Wisersky, wishes to thank all who contributed to the success of the rummage sale November 3.

The social meeting November 16 will be held in the evening at Legion hall. Mrs. Merle Holtz will be hostess.

For notice of the Armistice Day service and dance read the Legion announcement.

Skimming Soup

To remove excess fat from hot soup, wrap a chunk of ice in a small piece of cheesecloth and run it over the top of the soup. The excess fat will congeal and collect on the cold surface of the cloth and is removed in this way very easily.

for your Prescription

● No reputable druggist stocks or purposely vends drugs of questionable quality. All drugs are fresh and potent when placed on shelves in the prescription department. It is time that may rob them of a measure of their healing property. Because our prescription volume is large, the turnover is rapid. Thus, there is constant movement in our shelves, new stocks flowing in to replace the old. This is one sound reason for bringing your prescriptions to a house of Specialists. Add our skilled service and fair prices to these potent products, and you will see why so many Physicians counsel patients to turn in our direction.

May we suggest the most practical way in which you can test the facilities of this pharmacy is to bring your next prescription to us for compounding?

Farewell dinner for Bingham couples

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bingham and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bingham were guests of honor at a farewell dinner party given for them at the Rialto in Winnetka Tuesday evening, November 2. It was a real surprise and a very pleasant one for the Bingham family to find thirty-five of their friends awaiting them there. The two Bingham families were each presented with a corsage and later in the evening each received a beautiful silver covered bowl to carry the memory of their Illinois friends to their new homes.

The Bingham family will leave Buffalo Creek Farm, where they have lived for over thirty years, during this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bingham will go to Ruston, La., where their sons, Robert and Donald, already have a peach orchard started for them. The Howard Bingham family will return to Mr. Bingham's home state, Wisconsin, where they have purchased a farm near Burlington.

Mrs. Leslie Behrens and Miss Barbara Haben gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Marcelline Haben, daughter of the Ray Haben of Skokie, on Sunday, November 7, at the Behrens home. Seventeen guests were present. Miss Haben will be married on November 20 to Joseph Balenti in St. Peter's church at Skokie and her cousin, Barbara, will be a bridesmaid.

"Buster" Ortel had a happy time Saturday afternoon at the home of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ortel. A number of his small friends were invited in to celebrate his sixth birthday.

Baby John "Ricky" Sicks was happy to have his twin brother, James, come home from the hospital last Friday. Baby Jimmie had undergone an operation earlier in the week at the Children's Memorial hospital for the removal of an abnormal growth connecting the spinal column and collarbone.

Mr. and Mrs. Albin Erlandson spent Sunday with friends in Waukegan, Wis., where they lived for several years.

Mrs. Dorothy Drinkwater, Mrs. Kay Karry, Mrs. Marilyn Kelm, Mrs. Betty Bowman, Miss Betty Dickhoff and Miss Marie Mayer were among the music lovers who attended the concert by the First Piano Quartette in the Chicago Opera House. The quartette is the only four piano ensemble in the world and their performance brought forth encore after encore.

Ask permit for brick factory

One industrial permit calling for $200,000 worth of construction in Northfield township has been received by the Assessor's office for 1948, County Assessor John S. Clark this week announced.

After the new construction has been appraised, its valuation will be entered on the Assessor's rolls.

In the county's 30 country townships outside of Chicago a total of 126 permits for $10,756, 150 worth of industrial construction has been received for 1948, Clark said.

An industrial permit is issued for any type of commercial construction.

The Northfield permit is for a brick factory.

The Mt. Prospect Home Bureau will meet November 17, at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. H. F. Anderson, 9 S. William st. Members will work on lamp shades started at the last meeting, in the morning, and in the afternoon two craft lessons will be given, one on house decorations for Christmas, and another on holiday table decorations.

When a fellow needs a friend

Taffy is home again, and Mrs. Roger Ryden, realizes if it were not for the fact that Taffy accidentally met two "good neighbors" he might never have been returned to them.

Mrs. Roger Ryden, 1119 N. Harvard, Arlington Heights, stated, "Taffy had been gone a week and we were frantic. The children missed him especially."

"We decided to place an ad with Paddock Publications in an attempt to locate him. Thursday evening, a few hours after the paper appeared at the news stand, we received two calls."

"We found Taffy between Rand road and Elmhurst road near Palatine, and I think he was as happy to see us as we were to see him," Mrs. Ryden commented. "Your ads certainly do bring results."

Taffy? You've guessed it — Taffy's a dog, pet of the two Ryden children.

St. Norbert fall festival in new school building

Here's something of interest to anyone who likes kuscious hot turkey sandwiches—topped off with cups of delicious hot coffee. Such treats will be strictly "on the house" as just one of the enjoyable attractions of St. Norbert's Fall Festival. The date is Sunday, Nov. 21 and everyone is invited, according to the Rev. Charles Haefner, pastor of St. Norbert's.

But by far the most exciting aspect of this annual Fall Festival is the announced spot where it is to be held—in the new St. Norbert's school hall, now being rushed to completion in Northbrook. Commenting on this good news, Father Haefner said "This year—we really have something to celebrate. Although the building of our new church and school has not been an easy undertaking, we are pardonably proud of our progress to date. And, of course, we are overjoyed at the prospect of welcoming our friends and parishioners to the first parish event to be held in our new building."

DOORS WILL OPEN at 7:30 p. m. and plans are completed for providing fun for all comers. Games, refreshments and door prizes are listed high among the features that will be offered for visitors' enjoyment. Proceeds from the Fall Festival are to help complete St. Norbert's building program.

Chairman of the affair is Jack Dunne. Committee members include George Balmes, Ben. J. Schildgen, Mrs. B. J. Schildgen, Mrs. Otto Peuckert, Wm. J. Moellers, Nilus Tekippe, Ed. Ziegman, Mrs. Cornelia Snelten, Mrs. A. Brehm, and Frank Quinn.

Masonic club to hear special program Thursday night

The Mt. Prospect Masonic club will meet Thursday evening, November 11, at 8:00 o'clock, in Fellowship room in the South church in Mt. Prospect.

After a short business meeting one of the members, Brother Kenneth Hodges, editor and publisher of "National Engineer," will talk on "Magazines Also Go To Bed."

Refreshments will be served.

Illinois-Michigan Canal
Illinois-Michigan canal was responsible for Chicago being in the state of Illinois rather than in Wisconsin, and for getting the state out of bankruptcy. The canal played a major role in the development of Chicago and Illinois. The first boat to complete the 96-mile journey up the canal arrived in Chicago just a century ago.

Painting Pointers
First coat of paint is called the primer—like a petticoat for the dresscoat. A dull-finish primer is necessary under enamel. If painting an enameled piece, use an undercoat before re-enameled. For wood with knots or stained finish, use an aluminum paint primer to keep the resin or old color from bleeding through. When the primer is dry, rub smooth with sandpaper.

New voltage regulator

Arlington Heights village board Monday night approved purchase of a voltage regulator for the police department transmitter.

The new equipment, according to Edward Melka, village radio engineer, will keep the police transmitter on the air even when public service power drops. Cost of the regulation will be between $150 and $175, with installation.

U. S. makes 100 million motor vehicles to outdistance rest of world four to one

This year the American automotive industry has reached a significant milestone—production of one hundred million motor vehicles.

The 100 millionth vehicle, like millions ahead of it, rolled off the final assembly line in one of 112 car and truck plants scattered over 77 cities in 24 states.

Historians generally credit Charles E. and J. Frank Duryea with building, in 1893 at Springfield, Massachusetts, the first U. S. automobile powered by a gasoline engine.

Since the first Duryea car 55 years ago, the industry has turned out motor vehicles at an average annual rate of nearly 2,000,000.

Of the 100,000,000 vehicles produced in America, a total of 21,500,000 units went into export markets.

TODAY in 1948 the automotive and related industries employ nearly 9 million persons, or more than one out of every seven individuals earning a living in the United States.

A total of 56 U. S. firms now produce 21 makes of passenger cars, 39 makes of trucks and 20 makes of motor buses.

With the automotive industry at present turning out about 30 new cars and 10 new trucks and buses every minute of every working day, it is entirely possible that the second 100,000,000 motor vehicles will be produced in the U. S. in less than half the time required for the first 100 million.

Motor vehicles — passenger cars, trucks and buses — have

Lunch Bar has grand opening

Lou and Grace Neuendorf, the owners of the Prospect Heights Lunch Bar held their grand opening Saturday, November 6. Both were called upon to get behind the counter to sell tasty hamburgers or creamy malted milks, two features that are bound to prove popular with both local residents and highway traffic.

The Neuendorfs were welcomed back to Prospect Heights by many of their old neighbors and friends. All wished them the best of luck in their new venture. Several came with bouquets of asters and mums which were added to baskets of flowers sent by well wishers.

The Neuendorfs are well known locally, having resided on East McDonald road from 1939 through until 1945 when they moved to Arlington Heights. Mrs. Neuendorf was an active member in the Prospect Heights Chapter, St. James Women's Guild, while Neuendorf, some years ago, was always ready and willing to serve as an accordion player for any of the local groups. His accordion music and accompanist work at the first Strawberry Festival, given by the Community church Woman's Guild, will probably be remembered by all of those who were present.

Fred Skidmore, who has been managing the Lunch Bar since its opening, late in August, will remain as manager. The Bar will feature complete dinners, hamburgers, butter cream waffles and chili con carne. It will be open daily, except Wednesday, from 11:30 a. m. to midnight.

DOORS WILL OPEN at 7:30 p. m. and plans are completed for providing fun for all comers. Games, refreshments and door prizes are listed high among the features that will be offered for visitors' enjoyment. Proceeds from the Fall Festival are to help complete St. Norbert's building program.

Masonic club to hear special program Thursday night

The Mt. Prospect Masonic club will meet Thursday evening, November 11, at 8:00 o'clock, in Fellowship room in the South church in Mt. Prospect.

After a short business meeting one of the members, Brother Kenneth Hodges, editor and publisher of "National Engineer," will talk on "Magazines Also Go To Bed."

Refreshments will be served.

Illinois-Michigan Canal
Illinois-Michigan canal was responsible for Chicago being in the state of Illinois rather than in Wisconsin, and for getting the state out of bankruptcy. The canal played a major role in the development of Chicago and Illinois. The first boat to complete the 96-mile journey up the canal arrived in Chicago just a century ago.

Painting Pointers
First coat of paint is called the primer—like a petticoat for the dresscoat. A dull-finish primer is necessary under enamel. If painting an enameled piece, use an undercoat before re-enameled. For wood with knots or stained finish, use an aluminum paint primer to keep the resin or old color from bleeding through. When the primer is dry, rub smooth with sandpaper.

New voltage regulator

Arlington Heights village board Monday night approved purchase of a voltage regulator for the police department transmitter.

The new equipment, according to Edward Melka, village radio engineer, will keep the police transmitter on the air even when public service power drops. Cost of the regulation will be between $150 and $175, with installation.

brought about profound changes in America since the first crude "horseless carriages" made their appearance. They have helped to boost the American standard of living to a level far higher than anywhere else in the world. They gave the average family a new form of transportation to overcome the barriers of cost, time and distance.

LAST YEAR some 4,798,000 cars, trucks and buses were produced. This output was exceeded only by 1929, 1937 and 1941 production. If the present rate of production is maintained for the balance of the year, 1948 output will be second only to 1929.

Northbrook fire dept. host to county firemen

Monday, November 8, Northbrook fire department was host to the monthly meeting of Cook County Suburban Firemen's association.

Members learned the association water-fighting team won first place at the state firemen's convention at Rockford. The team included Morton Grove firemen with Chief Mueller and Chief Laudendorf of Northbrook and Glenview as committee chairmen.

After the business meeting, the audience listened to a speech by a representative of the bureau of fire underwriters. A buffet lunch of ham and potato salad comprised refreshments for the evening.

The association is composed of members of fire departments in the Cook county area.

Modern Home Decorators move

Modern Home Decorators has moved during the past week to new and larger quarters at 140 S. Northwest Highway, Barrington. They are in the new Eter building right across from Plague Flowers.

The proprietor Edward Catlow states the firm will be much better equipped to take care of their customers and will be adding lines from time to time to better serve the trade.

The grand opening will be Tuesday, November 16.

SUE FOR INJURIES

Beverly Gnewuch, Clyde and Edward Reading have sued W. O. Bussinius in circuit court for damages for injuries they sustained by an automobile collision April 25 at Algonquin road and Mt. Prospect road. It is charged that the defendant drove his car into the other one. Beverly asks $10,000 damages and the other two $1,500 each.

CARDINALS UPSET LEYDEN FOR NORTHEAST FOOTBALL TITLE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1948 PAGE NINE

Arlington Heights and Warren football teams must have taken courage from President Truman's example on Tuesday. Their victories and league championships which were won would a week ago have seemed to most folks as impossible as Truman's chances of re-election. Arlington outpointed Leyden 7-0 to win the Northeast while Warren thumped Zion 32-0 and Libertyville was nosing out Crystal Lake 8-6. Warren moved from third to first place in the final game of the season. Congratulations are most hearty from this writer to Coach Nelson, of Arlington, and Coach Ligon of Warren, for a great job of coaching. Our consolation to Coach Brady of Crystal Lake, who also did a great job but lost his best back, Cowan, with a broken leg to weaken his team in the stretch drive.

Real class among three Northeast teams

There are those who would scoff at the idea of attaching any importance to winning a three team conference such as the Northeast became this fall. We argue that Arlington Heights championship is as great as any the team ever captured. To win it Arlington had to beat Niles and Leyden, a pair of teams as good as any the league has produced in many years. On top of that the Cards whipped Crystal Lake 19-6 and Libertyville 33-0, both of whom were first division among the seceding Northeasters in the new North Suburban league.

Arlington at all time peak Friday at Leyden

Arlington was without question one of the finest grid teams ever to represent the school last Friday night. They outplayed Leyden's strong line, stopped their running attack, and believe it or not, put the clamps on the state. Arlington intercepted something like six Leyden passes.

From Leyden authorities comes the opinion that Arlington was stronger than any team they had met including Elgin, the one team to beat them prior to Friday night. Again it was Bill Robinson who sparked the Cards but every Cardinal rose to the occasion with his best performance of the season.

Warren fought up hill battle to win title

Warren's Friday game with Zion was postponed until Saturday due to Friday afternoon rain. That afternoon Libertyville killed Crystal Lake's title chances with an 8-6 win. Saturday's Warren-Zion game thus became one for the championship. Warren was ready and like Arlington more than equal to the occasion. They smashed Zion's hopes 32-0 with a convincing performance.

Bronchos shut out Northwest Conference 186-0

Barrington played true to form Saturday as they whipped Grant 34-0 for a Northwest clean sweep and a record point total of 186-0. The Broncho perfect record is as follows: 26 Bensenville 0, 38 Palatine 0, 38 Northbrook 0, 50 Antioch 0, and 34 Grant 0. This team, the finest in Northwest history, was defeated just once outside the conference, 19-0 by Arlington's Northeast leaders.

Globetrotters head benefit cage card at Palatine Monday

Mt. Prospect girls to test unbeaten Palatine in opener

Next Monday evening when the Harlem Globe Trotters play in the Palatine high school gym before a capacity crowd they will be making their last Chicago appearance before a coast to coast tour. Manager Abe Saperstein, famous coach and promoter of the Globe Trotters, has this year one of the best teams he has produced in the 22 years since the colored team was first organized. Last Saturday at the Chicago Stadium they were so much better than a strong pro team that they pulled all their stunts and put on the type of show they will give the fans here in Palatine.

Receipts from this Lions sponsored sports program will be used for Palatine youth. The bulk of the net proceeds will be turned over to the Palatine Youth Center Incorporated. A portion of the receipts will be used to purchase a memorial trophy. This trophy will honor the memory of four fine Palatine High lettermen who gave their lives for their country in World War II. Each year the school authorities will select an athlete who comes nearest to measuring up to the standard of scholarship, character, athletic achievement, and good school citizenship as set by these young men, Frances Reuse, John O'Brien, Jack Thompson, and Wilbert Gieseke.

CAPTAIN Francis Reuse was an infantry officer who lost his life in the Pacific area. In high school Reuse played on the Northwest Conference championship team of 1934 and 1935 and was high scorer of the conference and named all league forward. Reuse was a capable quarterback in football. Later he was a letterman in basketball at DePaul University where he graduated.

Lieutenant John O'Brien was an army air force pilot who did not return from a mission in the South Pacific. O'Brien was one of the best competitors in sports Palatine has ever had. He was a good performer in football, basketball, and track, making up for lack of size by a great competitive spirit. In his senior year his playing was instrumental in helping Palatine win their first district basketball tournament in which they defeated Ela, previously unbeaten for the season. O'Brien was frequently an honor roll student, took part in school dramatics, and other activities in addition to athletics.

Lieutenant Jack Thompson, a graduate of Northwestern University and a high ranking student, was a navy pilot. He lost his life when his plane crashed on patrol duty in the Panama Canal area. Thompson played fullback on the Palatine football team in the 1931 and 1932 seasons.

Wilbert Gieseke, a quiet, conscientious student at Palatine High in the late thirties, came

NW league coaches adopt eight-team football

The Northwest Conference coaches held their fall meeting at Phil Johnson's place on Waukegan road with a dinner and discussion of football and basketball. Mike Rose, prominent official, explained changes in the basketball rules.

The coaches went on record as unanimously recommending to the principals the adoption of three changes in policy as follows: (1) all schools use three officials for football next year; (2) the conference assess each school $15.00 a year for conference trophies in the four major sports; and (3) that admission rates be changed to 75c for adults and 30c for students.

G. A. McElroy presented the football schedule the principals had delegated him to prepare. The schedule was adopted subject to shift of dates due to outside contracts still in effect. The new schedule includes both Ela and Wauconda making a seven-game schedule from September 23 to November 4.

All schools were represented at the meeting. Coach Lehmann of Ela is president and Coach Waddington of Wauconda, secretary of the Northwest Coaches Association.

Penalty, fumble breaks heart of Eagles, 7-0

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

They were muddy, tired, but happy. That's a short description of the appearance of Coach Curtis Larsen's Arlington Varsity football squad last Friday night after it had come through with its best game of the season by whipping a highly rated Leyden outfit, 7-0, in four quarters of rugged football on the Eagles' field.

There couldn't have been a better way for the sixteen seniors on the Varsity eleven to end their grid careers at Arlington. The boys had been looking for this game all season, and when it came, they made the best of it.

MUCH CREDIT should be given to the Cards' defensive fullback, Ralph Heinze, who took over veteran Augie Krause's spot in the line up for this game and played spectacular ball. Krause was injured in a scrimmage a few days before and could not play in the Leyden game, but Heinze really played a bang up game in his place, even though he played the second half with a broken nose.

Arlington's great line, with special emphasis on Jimmy Slavovos and Bill West, pushed Leyden's supposedly strong forward wall around and allowed only 43 yards on rushing.

Bill Robinson and Chuck Fischer sparked the Cards' offense throughout the game. Robinson, who is undoubtedly one of the top quarterbackes in the state, was the all-around star of the game, as he threw 12 passes and completed 7 for 14 yards, intercepted 3 passes, caught a pass for the winning touchdown, and was at the bottom of many tackles. Fischer ran the hardest of any back on the field and in addition to that caught 4 of Robinson's passes for sizable gains, and tossed the winning touchdown pass to Robinson.

EARLY in the first period it appeared as though Leyden was set up for a runaway. On its first play from scrimmage, after taking over the ball on the Cards' 30 on a blocked kick, Chuck Graber took the ball on a handoff and tossed a long pass to Jim Spera, who fell over the goal line. A backfield in motion penalty against the Eagles brought the ball back, however, but they were right down deep in Arlington's territory again when another pass from Richy Spera to his brother, Jim Spera, was complete on the 4. Jim Spera cracked over the goal only to have the ball slip out of his arms and Heinze recover for Arlington for a touchback.

That took the heart out of Leyden and from that point on, Arlington was the aggressor and Leyden the defensive club.

The Cards started their touchdown march when Robinson intercepted one of Richy Spera's.

28 trade Cardinal 'A' for college numerals

That former wearers of the Arlington Heights high school "A" go on to further athletic honors in college was borne out this week in a survey conducted by this writer and athletic director Wally Grace of the high school staff.

Twenty-eight recent graduates of the local high school were found to be pursuing athletics at institutions of higher learning about the country, with some probably missed in this survey.

THE UNIVERSITY of Illinois claims most boys from AHTHS, with five known to be participating in sports at the state institutions.

Marvin Berschet made the frosch football squad, only to suffer a broken nose. His injury sidelined him to a certain extent, but he'll be back out next season as a sophomore. He also intends to go out for track, and should make the yearling team.

Kenneth Gronert is another Heights hopeful in the freshman class who will be pursuing track when the season arrives. He will probably be appearing in the middle and long distance runs.

BOB NELSON, pictured here, has become one of the best defensive backs on Northwestern University's football team. This fall, Bob hopes to be Rose Bowl bound the end of this year. His offensive duty has been limited to subbing for veterans Ed Tunnicliff and Tom Worthington, but he has another year of competition ahead of him.

The three Williams brothers, all out for football at Beloit this year, need no introduction to sport fans. Just last week Padlock Publications pictured the three lined up for work against the opposition.

Jim Robinson won his num-

Leahy's own radio program Friday nights produced by Prospect Hts. man

Every Friday night at 8:15 football fans can get the latest news and stories behind the football headlines with America's No. 1 coach, Leahy of Notre Dame. That is the title of his own radio program.

Producer of this weekly show is a resident of Prospect Heights, Lew Green. Lew was a football player himself years ago at NYU, and then in the professional circuit. Working closely as he has with Frank Leahy for two years has given him a perspective of the operations of the coaching genius.

LEAHY IS A perfectionist in everything he does. His material at Notre Dame is not any better than that at other schools, when they enter, that is. After a couple of years of the rigid training and teaching methods of Leahy, a player either blossoms forth and displays his in-born talents or falls by the wayside.

Marty Wendel, the great guard and certain to be All American this year, has played as a regular in three positions while at Notre Dame; fullback, center and guard. Leon Hart and Jim Martin, last year's star ends, are playing defensive tackle this year. These are a few examples of how Leahy shifts men and strategy to come up with a winning team.

No one ever thought Lujack would ever be replaced, but Frank Tripuka has come up so fast that there are those who are comparing him to the great Lujack.

Packers hope to upset Bears

Chicago Bears football team will be at home this Sunday before a sellout crowd with the Green Bay Packers as featured guests.

The Packers have been disappointing this season, beginning with the early 42-7 loss to the Bears. They have played alleged listless ball in at least one game, drawing fines from coach Curly Lambeau.

But the Packer-Bears rivalry dates back to one of the oldest on record, and fans can be assured of one thing—those Packers will be out to upset the Luckman-Lujack apocryph if possible. There should be upwards of 50,000 persons on hand.

LAST SUNDAY the Bears started slow after the opening play touchdown, with Lujack being carried from the field. But they finally rolled in the fourth period to win handily.

Lujack's injuries were not serious and he promises to be on hand for Sunday's fracas. That final conversion Sunday was kicked by Lawler, which only goes to prove that in pro football, kicking points after is like punching a clock.

That is, it is if you have a good line ahead of you.

Basketball season reserved seats on sale at Arlington

Basketball season reserved seat tickets will go on sale this week end at Millay's and Arlington Heights high school, with Cardinal teams slated to fulfill 20 doubleheaders and three tournament engagements.

Opening gun of the campaign for Coach Gen. Bell's men will be at Dundee November 26. Leyden, Niles, Barrington, Crystal Lake, Northbrook, Maine, Belvidere and Libertyville are all on the schedule, with ten games slated for the Heights gym.

Season reserved seat tickets for the home contests retail at $6.00.

Niles gains 13-6 victory over Woodstock

by BILL BRUCE
A fighting and determined Niles varsity team gave the smaller shivering, homecoming crowd the sweet taste of victory over Woodstock 13-6 in the last five minutes of play on Friday, November 5, at the Niles field.
With the score 6-0 in favor of the Woodstock Bluebreaks, the Trojans started to roll near the close of the third period. After an exchange of punts Niles had the ball on the Woodstock 30-yard line. Lenny Lange faded back to pass and connected to Ward Nipper on the ten, where he raced over the goal.
The officials, however, ruled he had stepped out of bounds on the nine-yard line. The Trojans then had a first down on the nine but on the next play Niles fumbled and Woodstock recovered to end the scoring threat.
AS THE FOURTH quarter opened, the Bluebreaks racked up three successive first downs, but the Trojans held fast and took possession on the 35. After a series of running plays and two passes had carried to the Woodstock nine-yard line, Pete Heininger skirted the right end and crossed the goal line standing up. Lange passed to Nipper in the end zone for the point after touchdown and what proved to be the winning margin.

With one minute and 17 seconds remaining in the game, Woodstock started passing desperately and completed three consecutive tosses. However, their hopes of overtaking the Trojans were shattered when Pete Heininger gathered in another Woodstock pass on the Niles 20-yard line and raced 80 yards down the western sidelines to make the score 13-6. A second pass to Nipper in the end zone was knocked down.

THE TROJANS finished up their '48 season with a record of four wins and four losses. Niles held a season lead over their opponents in total yardage gained with 1543 to 1376 for the opposition. The Trojans racked up 16 touchdowns, none p.a.t.'s, and one safety for a total of 107 points. The opponents rolled up 112 points.

Bowlers win at Beloit

Harold Nebel's State Farm Ins. Bowling team of Arlington Hts. traveled to Beloit, Wisc. Sunday afternoon and defeated the State Farm team in a match game by 9 pins — 2339 to 2330.

The exciting match wasn't decided until the last frame of the 3rd game. The local boys were 110 pins behind after the 1st game, and after an even 2nd tilt, came back strong in the 3rd to win.

Men on the team are Roy Goebert, Gail Bach of Mt. Prospect and Ralph Norman and Harold Nebel of Arlington.

passes and ran 14 yards to the Eagles' 47. A pass from Robinson to Heinze and an unnecessary roughness penalty on Leyden moved the ball in one play down to the 24, for a first and ten.

Fischer and Robinson carried in two plays up to the 10, and on the second play of the second quarter Fischer, on a double reverse pass, flipped an aerial to Robinson for a touchdown. Ken Bork came through with the extra point kick, and Arlington was out in front, 7-0.

THE REST of the half, and in the next half, Arlington was the aggressor and had several other scoring chances but failed to connect. Midway through the 3rd period, Arlington had moved from the 49 to the 1-yard line but an offside penalty moved them back, and the Cards failed to hit pay dirt.

Late in the final period, Heights started another drive from the 50-yard stripe, but time ran out with Coach Larsen's charges stranded on Leyden's 5 yard line, still holding

On the sidelines

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

What Coach Curtis Larsen's victorious, Arlington Cardinals lacked in ability last Friday night, they made up in spirit. Starting way back on August 25, a great fighting spirit and determination prevailed when the boys first took up their suits. Many of the boys had never played the position they were assigned, but there was great eagerness to learn, and everyone was pulling for the other person.

A good example of this spirit of cooperation was present Friday night when Larsen approached Chuck Fischer before the game and asked who would be a good defensive back to substitute for Krause? Chuck nominated Bob Ragland, who all year had been a rival of his for the halfback spot. Bob was put in and turned in a hard, steady game. Everyone was pulling for one another Friday night, and that was the key to Arlington's 7-0 conquest of Leyden.

This victory increased greatly the Cards' prestige, because Leyden was one of the top teams in the state. This victory gave Arlington the unofficial Northwest Conference title, for they beat the four top teams who were in the conference last year before it broke up, namely: Leyden, Niles, Crystal Lake, and Libertyville. This victory gave Heights a final record of 12 victories and 11 defeats, which is not bad considering the calibre of opposition the Cards faced.

Much of this fine Arlington showing can be credited to line coach Leo Bell, who developed our young inexperienced line into one of the finest forward walls in the state. Another person who deserves much credit for his spirit is Toni Moretti, Toni, who had a great season to look forward to, fractured his collar bone a few days before the Barrington game and was out for the rest of the season as a player. However, this did not stop Toni, for every night he was out on the field drilling the boys. But that isn't all; they soon began to call Toni "The Toe," because every night he would set a little time aside to kick extra points and was getting quite deadly.

A fine gesture of sportsmanship was shown at Leyden when the Leyden Dad's Club invited the Arlington squad, coaches, and Dads down in the cafeteria after the game for a luncheon. The exchange parties between the "L" and the "A" Clubs last school year has created a friendly feeling between the athletes of both schools.

Basketball is getting started in Arlington High, and two announcements are to be made. The first one is that all the preliminary games this year will be Frosh-Soph instead of Jay-Vee. Twelve new warm up suits have been ordered for the Varsity, and are said to be superior to anything around here this year. You can get your first glimpse of them at the Cards' first home game on Dec. 17 against Leyden.

Mac Says—

Coach Paul Fry deserves much credit for developing a very smooth working team, certainly the best ever to play for Barrington. We congratulate Barrington and Coach Fry for a great team and coaching job. Prospects for next year will be all Barrington again.

Football ushered out with all-star team.

Next week Paddock Publications will carry pictures of the Northwest Conference all-league football team with a story by the sports editor. This team is the choice of the Northwest coaches and the sports editor. Both first and second teams will be named.

Starting next week we will have stories concerning the basketball prospects of the various schools in this area. At the outset it looks like Barrington will be the odds on favorite in Northwest basketball just as they were in football. Leyden of the Northeast, with only one player graduated, is expected to be one of the best teams in the suburban area. Arlington Heights will also have a strong team.

Bill Robinson an all-star if there ever was one

Arlington's great quarterback, who sparked a mediocre team to a brilliant season, deserves all-state recognition. Robinson called plays in flawless fashion, was an exceptional forward passer, ran back punts with the best of them, punted consistently good, and was a wizard at breaking up pass plays on defense. Robinson is undoubtedly Arlington's best quarterback of all time and one of the finest all-around performers this year and any year in the strong suburban area.

Stags win, Globetrotters exhibit tricks at stadium

MAX ZASLOFSKY

Chicago Stags went on to victory over the Baltimore Bullets Saturday night with a well-played second half for the Windy City boys. The Stags attempted to keep up with the hit and run tactics of the Easterners the first half of the game, and were down seven points at the intermission.

Then Coach Harold Olsen's boys steadied to play just good basketball, centering their attack on ball control and the game was in the bag. Final tally was about a 12 point margin for the Stags. Max Zaslofsky again proved the favorite for Chicago fans with plenty of points.

Globetrotters kept just ahead of the Collegians in the preliminary with an exhibition of fancy tricks and foolishness appreciated at least by the crowd. The colored team will be at Palatine Monday night for more of the same.

The Stags play in the Stadium again this Saturday night when they tangle with Indianapolis. The junior team of Coach Harold Olsen, the Steers, will play in the preliminary.

Chicago Cardinals at Pittsburgh Sunday

Chicago Cardinals, after walking all over Detroit offensively, are playing at Pittsburgh this Sunday afternoon. They return to the Windy City next week against the Los Angeles Rams. While the Cardinals appear to be headed for just about all the offensive records in the book, they still lack a good defense, which may be the deciding factor in that Bear-Card battle December 12.

Bronchos buck their way to 34-0 win over Grant

Barrington's Bronchos bucked their way to a 34-0 win over Grant last Saturday to outclass the conference and chalk up a spotless record. Barrington scored 186 points in five games while holding their opponents scoreless. Grant came the nearest to the Broncho goal of any team as they were once stopped on the Barrington five yard stripe.

Kranz broke away on the second play of the game to run 76 yards for a touchdown and give Barrington the lead. Soon after a blocked punt and a 20 yard pass from Frey to Hicks made the score 13-0. In the second period Barrington marched inside the Grant 15 yard line three times but could not score.

THE BRONCHOS put over two touchdowns in the third period. Hansen ran 18 yards for one and Frey went over from the two yard line on a quarterback sneak for the other. In the last period speedy little Baumann intercepted a pass and ran 35 yards for the final tally.

Barrington's great concern in their final game was to keep their goal line uncrossed. For this reason they tried few passes and grant, realizing the Barrington strategy, played a seven man defensive line to stop the running game. The Bronchos still gained 300 yards rushing with Kranz having a 13.0 yard average in 11 attempts. John Hansen 10.1 in nine tries, Baumann 7.1 in seven and George Hansen 6.0 yards in seven trips.

Niles sophomores defeat Woodstock

by BILL GRAEFEN

A homecoming victory came to the Niles sophomore gridmen last Friday night, November 5, when the Trojans defeated Woodstock high by a score of 6-0.

Scoring was hampered by a wet and muddy field which held up play for almost an hour. Don Niles, halfback, fought through this mud, however, in an exciting second quarter; racing 30 yards around right end he racked up the only touchdown scored in the game.

SALE OF TICKETS for the big night of basketball on Monday has been going so fast that a near sell out is in prospect. The ticket office will not be opened for sales at the door until 7:00 though the doors will be open for holders of advance sales tickets at 6:30. The opening game at 7:15 brings together the Immanuel Lutheran girls team, undefeated last season, and the Mt. Prospect girls.

The main event scheduled to start at 8:45 will find stars of former Palatine High teams opposing the famed Globe Trotters. There are no reserved seats. It is first come first served. Tickets are on sale at the LaLonde-Steinbrink office, the National Bank, and the Palatine High School. Seventy Lions members have tickets to sell. Admission is $1.00 straight including tax.

Nies J-V gridders lose to Arlington

by BILL GRAEFEN

The Niles junior gridmen lost their last game of the season to Arlington Heights high school by a score of 9-0 on the Niles field November 3.

The Arlington boys trapped the Niles Trojans in the third quarter behind their own goal line for a safety; they racked up another seven points in the last quarter by making a touchdown and completing the conversion.

Billy Cutler scored for Arlington, with injured Harry Griffith kicking the extra point. The Arlington team thus had a one and one record for the season.

Campus Capers

At Ill. Wesleyan

Miss Ellen Kruse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kruse, Wheeling, served on the queen's court for Illinois Wesleyan university's homecoming celebration, October 29-31.

Miss Kruse, who represented Sigma Alpha Iota sorority, was one of the seven queen candidates presented at the homecoming dance Saturday evening. Now a junior at Wesleyan, Miss Kruse is majoring in music. She is a member of Mas-quers, collegiate choir and university chorus.

At Purdue

Omega Chi Epsilon, national honorary society for students in Chemical Engineering, announces the pledging of 33 students in Purdue University. The chapter was first organized on the Purdue campus in 1943, and membership is based on scholarship and character.

Pledges include John Burgeson, Arlington Heights.

At Navy pier

Alexander Magnus, Central road, Arlington Heights, has been named vice president of Phi Eta Sigma, national honorary for college freshmen at the University of Illinois' Navy Pier branch. Magnus is a sophomore in the College of Engineering.

Phi Eta Sigma has 51 college chapters throughout the nation. It was founded in 1923 by Thomas Arkle Clark.

'Billy' Poelman, former resident of Wheeling, passes in Chicago

A telephone call from Chicago Sunday brought word of the death of Miss Wilhelmina 'Billy' Poelman of that city. Miss Poelman came to Wheeling as a young girl when her family lived at Childerley and later in Wheeling.

While in her late teens she was afflicted with blindness. In 1934 she entered the school for the blind at Jacksonville. Later she attended a down-state Normal school, graduating with high honors. For several years she was engaged in social service work in a program of teaching the blind.

Two years ago her health began to fail and for the past six weeks she had been hospitalized. She had been making her home with her mother, Mrs. Z. Schering, and her sisters, Mrs. Augusta Luinstra and Katherine Schering.

Mother of Mrs. Wilbur Koester succumbs

Mrs. John Griebel, 65, of St. Louis, Missouri, mother of Mrs. Wilbur Koester, of Palatine, died Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. of a heart stroke at Lutheran hospital, St. Louis.

She had had three strokes in three weeks. Rev. and Mrs. Koester left Palatine Wednesday morning to attend funeral services Friday and will return to Palatine Saturday.

CARD OF THANKS

Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings, and other kindnesses, we are deeply grateful.

The children of
Edward C. Wilke

Obituaries

Frances Diehl

Services for Frances Diehl, of Arlington Heights, will be held Friday, at 2 p. m., from Karstens-Fairbanks funeral home. Rev. C. Victor Brown will officiate and interment will be in Arlington Heights cemetery.

Mrs. Diehl, nee Hortnburg, was born August 15, 1871 in Chicago. She was united in marriage to Henry Diehl of Chicago, and lived there and in Norwood Park until 1934 when Mr. Diehl died. Mrs. Diehl then moved to Arlington Heights to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Henry.

While in Norwood Park, Mrs. Diehl was quite active in the Methodist church, being a Sunday school teacher there up until a few years ago. She passed away Tuesday after an extended illness.

The deceased is survived by three children: Anthony Diehl, Mrs. Mabel Schaefer, and Mrs. Bessie Henry, all of Arlington Heights; four grandchildren; two great grandchildren; two brothers, Anthony Hornung of Los Angeles, California, and Verd Hornung of Chicago; and one sister, Mrs. Katherine Goetz, of Chicago.

Isabelle Andersen

Funeral services for Isabelle Rebecca Andersen, of Palatine, were held November 1 from St. Paul Ev. and Ref. church, with Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officiating. Interment was in Hillsdale cemetery.

Mrs. Andersen, nee Babcock, was born March 4, 1862 in Palatine, where she also attended school. In 1880 she was married to Herbert Cooper of Elk Grove, who passed away at an early age. She later married Richard Andersen of Chicago, where she lived until six years ago, when Mr. Andersen died.

At that time Mrs. Andersen came back to Palatine to make her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Umbdenstock. She died October 29.

Besides the Umbdenstocks she is survived by two nephews, Charles Babcock of Palatine, and Ben Babcock, of Des Plaines; and a cousin, Mrs. Mae Jones, of Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Charles Schening

Charles Schening passed away at the home of Mrs. Bertha Schoppe, 49 N. Benton st., Palatine, November 7. He lived with the Schoppes from the days of his youth, employed at first on their farm, and during later years employed by the village of Palatine. He was 76 years old.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Harry Tharp funeral home, with Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officiating. Interment was in St. Paul cemetery, Barrington.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a sister, Mrs. Annie Gieske, of Lake Zurich; a brother, Henry Schening, of Chicago, and an uncle, August Blank of Moline.

Maurice E. Moore

Final rites for Maurice E. Moore, 120 Morrison ave., Mount Prospect, were held Monday from Oehler's chapel, Des Plaines. Rev. Theodore Potter officiated and interment was in Ridgewood cemetery.

Mr. Moore was born April 6, 1904 in Nebraska. He was employed with the Underwood Roofing company, Chicago. He passed away at his home November 4.

Mr. Moore is survived by his wife, Charlotte.

James Carter

Funeral services for James Carter, 1314 Hazel st., Deerfield, were held Tuesday from Oehler's Deerfield chapel, with Rev. F. G. Guither officiating. Interment was in Ridgewood.

Mr. Carter was born September 13, 1870 in Marshalltown, Iowa. He was a retired school teacher.

Survivors include his wife, Edith W., and son, Raymond J.

Thake golden wedding attended by 100

About 100 invited guests attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thake (nee Flenscher) at their home in Elk Grove Sunday, October 11.

Pastor Drexler delivered an appropriate address. They were recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

Among those present were six sons, William of Jefferson Park, Herman of Arlington Heights, Henry, Fred, Martin and Louis; and five daughters, Mrs. Mary Arnsweiler of Chicago, Mrs. Fred Redeker of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Henry Linneman of Elk Grove, Mrs. Henry Wille of Schaumburg and Alvina, Elk Grove; 25 grandchildren; Mrs. Broesher, sister of Mr. Thake, and Henry Flenscher, of Des Plaines, brother of Mrs. Thake.

F. W. Mueller arrives in Germany

Relatives and friends of Supervisor F. W. Mueller received 12 postal cards Sunday stating he arrived safely in Germany October 2 and reached Sulze, Mecklenburg, Schwerin, Germany, his old home which he left 40 years ago on October 3. He says he enjoyed the trip and is in the best of health.

Sidelights of Arlington Heights

Mrs. Maxwell has rented the upper flat of the J. J. Dietrich house.

Mr. Fred Militzer and Miss Tillie Niemeyer visited in Hanover Sunday.

H. W. Scharringhausen, wife and daughter visited a relative at Deaconess hospital, Chicago, Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Popp was operated on at Westside hospital, Chicago, for appendicitis. Mrs. Wm. Wischmann and Miss Ella Thiemann visited her Sunday.

Edwin Sieburg and Miss Anna Bowman left Monday for a pleasant visit with relatives in Veta, Iowa.

The John Pieplow family enjoyed a visit recently from his friend Jacob Bender and niece Mrs. George Becker and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Traub entertained his brothers and their wives and Miss Traub of Chicago Sunday.

Farm notes

If a hen lays an egg a week the year through, it will just pay for her feed and every extra egg will yield a profit.

If you want to get a good yield of clover next season, give the fields which are to be sown a good coating of manure.

A pumpkin cut in half and placed before the fowls will soon be nothing but rind. A good way is to stick them on nails in the walls of the house, as the fowls will get desirable exercise in jumping a few inches to reach them.

Local Republicans hold mass meeting

The first Republican mass meeting of the season will be held in the new social hall Saturday evening, October 17. Prominent speakers are billed to appear. Everybody is cordially invited to hear them speak.

A Republican rally at Bloomingdale will be held Thursday evening at 8. County candidates will speak.

IT DIDN'T DAWN

The great day didn't dawn. The dawn was obscured by a huge cloud kicked up by a spunky little man with a fighting heart—Harry S. Truman.

Reputedly by his party, which tried to side-step him at the convention, the little man fought his way to the nomination and then, deserted by factions of his own party, he fought his way into the hearts of the American people and won the greatest personal triumph in the history of American politics.

Harry Truman will take over his duties as President of the United States in the most independent position a president ever held. Winning the election on his own, he has a golden opportunity to make himself a great President.

In winning the election, Truman confounded all the experts. Everybody was wrong, but the people. The hot fight demonstrated that a great democracy America really is.

THE WEATHER

Up to election day, we had been enjoying the finest fall weather in years. After November 2, the weather turned sour.

We asked a local Democrat if, since they now controlled American politics, they could do something about the weather. But he replied weather was one thing, even a Democrat's power to alter.

Rains are needed badly to help farmers in the fall plowing, and trees and shrubs surely need some moisture before winter sets in.

FAST WORK

We met Tony Dolotowski of Palatine Equipment company on the street the other day and asked him to plow our garden.

"When?" asked Tony.

"Anytime. It's ready now."

When we got home for lunch, the garden was plowed. Now if that isn't service, we don't know what is.

DAMAGE

There was a lot of senseless and wanton damage by Hallowe'en pranksters this year. The most senseless was breaking up the little cement elephant Dan Bergman has had in his yard for years.

Bergman took great pains to create that miniature elephant. That any pranksters would stoop so low as to smash the proud work of an old gentleman nearing the century mark is almost beyond belief.

FAST GROWTH

The speed with which Palatine has grown within the last few years can best be exemplified by noting the number of homes built in this area since the post-war building boom.

Here are the figures. Palanois park has 246 homes; South Plum Grove road area 136; Highland Ridge 16.

These homes are of the single family dwelling type. The increase of nearly 400 homes accounts for the fact that Palatine's population has about doubled the past few years. If times remain prosperous, a considerable growth may also be anticipated.

McIntosh company still has 600 lots available for single family dwelling construction located within the village, and there are several other smaller subdivisions which may be developed within the next few years.

BIG BILLS

About now Palatine folks are receiving their first combination water and sewer bills. At first look, bill-receivers are likely to be shocked at the increased figures.

The new sewer rental bill is hooked up with the water bill for the first time with this issue of the water bills. Sewer rental is based on the amount of water consumed; the larger the amount of water consumed, the higher the sewer rental part of the bill.

When folks get these new bills, the village clerk will have a lot of explaining to do and will probably wish he was in Florida, South America or some other place before this first collection period is over.

However, Palatine village clerk has enclosed with each bill a statement of what it's all about which should help householders understand the price hike.

NEWS

"Get the news before it is news" is what big city papers tell their reporters. Well, some types of news are pretty much the same year after year.

For instance, if a newspaper man has attended a few county fairs, a few ball games or a few football contests, he knows the local color of these events and he can write the story of the crowds and pre-game doings without even being there.

We wrote such a story this fall about Elmer Walter's mums. Now Elmer for years has had his garden full of mums, so this year we assumed he had done the same, and we wrote a story about his mums.

We didn't know he'd been too busy to bring any from his nursery lot, until he told us a fellow came to his house to ask if "this was the place the mums were supposed to be all over everywhere?"

Anyhow, Walter took him to the nursery and made a good sale, and then took a day off and hauled a lot of mums over to set out around the house, to make good that story of ours that "news is news before it happens."

COMING FARMER

We never saw a fellow more anxious to get out in the country and move into his farm home than Eddie Haseman. And no wonder Eddie is in a hurry to get into the spacious home southwest of the village. The house has large, airy rooms, big windows, and all modern conveniences a person could ask for.

Eddie has sold his home in town, and is pushing contractors as fast as possible to complete the new farm home. Ed is also interested in the land out there, and talks crops, fall plowing and crop rotation like a regular farmer.

Ed didn't forget the wild life in his scheme of things. He left standing corn stalks and grass and weed patches for cover for pheasants.

In the future

Christmas trees up to eight feet in height will be marketed by one distributor this year in wax-treated tightly-sealed paper cartons that are said to keep them fresh and fragrant.

New spot-remover kit is expected to remove stains ranging from lipstick and grease to iodine. Six small bottles do the trick. Combination fuel burners for house heating are showing up at retail in greater numbers. One new coal-fired model can be switched either to gas or oil; another shifts from gas to oil automatically when the temperature drops below a certain level. New home deodorant comes in cylindrical package that can be left open to counter ordinary odors, or used with built-in pump on nights when there are fried onions. Tea syrup combines sugar and flavor for instant hot or cold tea. Just add water. Household items frequently find themselves struck by snow avalanches from the roof can eliminate this hazard by installing a new electric snow-melting cable along the eaves. It plugs into the house circuit. Small coin-wrapping gadget is available for stores, theatres and small banks. Multi-purpose power tool weighing less than six pounds has one abrasive disk to cut stone or tile, others for sanding and polishing, and a drill chuck that takes bits up to one-fourth inch.

Value of Choline, a member of the vitamin B family, and methionine, an amino acid, in the treatment of cirrhosis of the liver has been established beyond any question.

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address: Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

PARKING METEAS

According to the grapevine, Palatine businessmen are again attempting to get rid of the parking meters. That letter last week in the fence post was revealing in this regard.

It certainly was a good example of a Palatine person trading in the town of her choice with no regard of financial cost. For certainly it cost more in gas and car expenses to drive to Arlington Heights and return than even two one-hour periods on a parking meter.

I still believe that a parking problem can be solved by one of two methods—either strict enforcement of parking limits, or parking meters. Both systems require services of an additional police officer, with the latter method gaining revenue to pay his salary, at least.

In my opinion the big factor in a woman's decision as to where to shop has nothing to do with parking meters, gasoline or distance.

It is entirely decided by where she can get the merchandise she wants, how she's treated by the clerks, and general appearance of the store. Altogether too many merchants who believe they have the best money can buy, are content to wait for their customers to find it out.

How about letting the people of Palatine vote on retention of the meters, after giving them all the facts? Let the motoring majority of the town make the decisions, rather than a few who could conceivably be hoping for all-day parking closer to their places of work.

THANKS

Thank you very much for the publicity you gave us on the P.T.A. Fun Fair; and also on the P.T.A. Home Talent play to be presented Friday, November 12, at eight o'clock.

THANKS

Please accept the thanks of the Prospect Heights Lions club for the splendid publicity given our Seventy Annual Halloween Festival which was held Saturday, October 25. As you probably know, the net proceeds of the Festival will go to provide an all weather black topped play area for the Prospect Heights public school, the cost of the project to be $1,000.00.

It was only through the splendid cooperation of Mrs. Viola Spears, your Prospect Heights representative, and your organization, that this Lions club project was so successful.

I know that you must derive a great deal of satisfaction in the knowledge that your publications play such an important part in helping build the communities your newspapers serve, especially where the welfare of our boys and girls are concerned.

Edw. E. Warwick,
Gen. Chairman,
Hallowe'en Festival.

CARELESS HUNTERS

Last week I wrote to the Fence Post asking that motorists be careful of our children who live outside of the village limits. At the risk of seeming a chronic gripe I should like to make the same appeal to hunters during this next month.

For the first time we have posted "no hunting" signs this year. We hate to seem unneighborly, but last year shot hit our house within twenty feet of where I was standing and one of the neighbor's domestic ducks was killed. Whether this was due to carelessness or to poor eyesight, it constitutes a serious hazard to small children who can be hidden by tall weeds or shrubbery.

Personally I believe hunting should not be allowed at all in an area where there are more children than pheasants. But as long as it is, certainly a little caution is not too much to ask.

TOWN EXPANSION

A group representing approximately one hundred and twenty-two home owners presently living in Hillcrest Subdivision, North Emerson street, Castle Heights, and a portion of Prospect Manor, in a joint meeting on November 3, 1948, at St. John's church voted to sustain the action of the Mt. Prospect Village Board in opposing the Bluet proposal to erect some six hundred homes in the area to the north of Gregory street and east of Main street, either through annexation to the village or as a development adjacent to the village for the following reasons:

1. The present capacity of our water system is such that it cannot take care of such a development; thus requiring an expensive expansion to carry the additional load.
2. The Feehanville Drainage System very likely would be overloaded, thus causing flooded basements and needless additional expense to the present property owners.
3. The present addition to the school just completed is filled nearly to capacity and a new building program would, probably bankrupt the school district.
4. Lowering of the requirement of the present building code would result in substandard construction and thus jeopardize the investment of the present home owners of the area and set a precedent for other substandard building projects.
5. We do not believe due to past experience in other sections of the village that any substantial benefit would accrue to veterans in a project of this sort. Rather it would probably immediately fade from view for financial reasons for most interested veterans.
6. The present village services are barely adequate and would of necessity have to be increased to afford proper protection.

Drew Walker,
Temporary Sec. of a Special Meeting

Member when

by JUNE McDONALD

Member when drivers of the first cars hung firmly to the steering wheel as though frozen to it—eyes concentrated on the road ahead—while occupants of the car accepted the responsibility of ascertaining if the roads were clear from the left, the right, and the rear?

Today—young men drive with only one arm—his girl gets his entire attention—and if the other fellow doesn't keep a sharp lookout, HE will be in the ditch.

Back in 1908 when Arlington Heights boasted only three cars—August Becker and Louie Roehler had their new Cadillac—and J. W. Burkett rode around in his high-wheeled Holdsmobile?

High button shoes were the vogue—bicycles built for two—hall trees—the large rubber plant standing in the hallway—the jelly beans mother hid; how we found them and swiped a few—then shook the bag so she wouldn't know any had been taken?

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS streets were graded back 1914 or 1915 and left in mud and dust for a full year before the first pavement was laid?

There was more community fun back about 1908 and people mixed in a more compact circle of friends rather than travel 20 miles away for fun?

When grandpa was a boy in Arlington Heights, popular nicknames of surrounding villages were—"No mountain and not much prospect?" "In Schaumburg, ist die tuphel loos?" "Devil's Hill?" "Raise hell?" "Alligator Flats?"

A recent letter to the 'Member when column reads as follows:

Speaking of the "Member when" stuff, yours truly hasn't forgotten quite all he'd like to "disremember." But those maddys linger on. Good ol' days, never to return! (But then, who wants 'em back anyway—except a few nostalgic old goats who had their fun and wish they could do it over again with modern conveniences?)

There were the old mud street days, when buggies, wagons and even horse-drawn fire engines on the way to a fire became stuck.

How we kids gathered around the new electric arc lights that followed the old kerosene street light around dusk to watch them turned on.

Pa and kids got up on zero mornings to bring in wood for the stoves. After breakfast, pa went to work and the children walked a mile or so to school.

Newsboys delivered Chicago papers in sparsely settled sections for the profit of six cents a week per customer, sometimes traveling through deep snow to the last house a half mile further on. Occasionally papers came in late from Chicago and we received our news about nightfall.

It Happened Here

Benediction

Now is the earth a molten glory. And tho' it's just an old, old story, The lavish richness of the year Is largest offered now and here. The gold of Ophir from the mines Beyond our earth's remote confines, And all the wealth of far Cathay One deigns upon our steps to lay, Gold for the censer, the altar and most Gold for the humble Priest's robe to boast. Silence broods here as tho a spell Upon the Priest and audience fell. And in the hush a voice seems to speak, "Peace I give to the lowly and meek." To get the significance, you would need to know Red, a good scout, loving husband and father, but no church goer; he bot a pleasant home in a little village and settled down with his wife and two little girls, Nancy, old enough to join her mates attended Sunday School until a certain morning. Looking at her dad, whom she idolized, she announced, "I'm not going to Church any more, my dad doesn't." Latest report is that Red is a teacher in the Sunday School.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

"And so each venture is a new beginning. A raid on the inarticulate with shabby equipment always deteriorating in the general mess of unprecision of felling, undisciplined squads of emotion."

T. S. Eliot—East Coker.

These thought-provoking words from the Nobel prize in literature, arrest one's immediate attention upon entering the north room in the Laura Davidson Sears Academy of Fine Arts at the Elgin Academy in Elgin, Illinois.

The Eliot quotation appears in large black letters on white paper near the top of the north wall in the gallery where the architectural drawings of the office of Schweikher and Elting are having a showing. It sounds the "tone" for this exhibit and seems the perfect description of the work and quality of Paul Schweikher's creative artistry.

Social security benefits

Dependents and survivors of insured workers accounted for over one-half of the total social security benefits paid in Cook county as of June 30th according to the latest compilation of figures released by Edward N. Novotny, manager of the Evanston Social Security office.

Total benefit payments were being mailed to 76,143 persons amounting to $1,661,771. Retired workers numbered 35,433 and were drawing $969,068.

The balance was divided as follows, aged wives, 10,095 receiving $148,196 monthly; 65 year old widows, 8,369, $181,210 monthly. Some 4,559 young widows with children were receiving $105,547, while $251,808 was being paid to 17,279 children. There were 408 dependent parents drawing $5,942 monthly.

Novotny pointed out that these payments emphasized the survivorship features of Old Age and Survivors Insurance.

"Some people still think of the program as a retirement program alone," he said.

Nationally as of June 30th monthly checks were being mailed to 2,182,043 beneficiaries and amounted to $42,882,000. Of this $91,095 were retired workers 65 or over, while the balance constituted survivors and dependents.

Modern Etiquette

Q—Is there a certain order in which automobiles leave, following a church wedding?
A—Yes. The car of the bride and bridegroom leaves first, then the bridesmaids, followed by the bride's parents, then the bridegroom's parents, next the nearest relatives, last the friends.

Q—Is it rude for a guest at dinner to refuse a dish?
A—At a small dinner, where the hostess may not have a large variety of dishes, it is better to partake of each, even if all of it is not eaten.

Q—Should one cut buttered potatoes with a knife?
A—No; only the fork should be used.

Q—Should a woman use the salutation "Dear Sir" when writing a social note to a man?
A—No; this is for business purposes only. The informal salutation is "Dear Mr. Blank," and the formal salutation is "My dear Mr. Blank."

Q—What would be the best phrase for a woman to use when introducing her husband to another woman?
A—"Mrs. Smith, may I present my husband?"

Q—Is it necessary that a hostess arrange some entertainment for her guests after a small, informal dinner?
A—Yes, she should arrange some form of entertainment, such as cards or dancing.

Q—What would be a good, brief note of condolence to send to a friend who has lost a parent?
A—"Dear Jane: Words are inadequate to express my regret, but I am thinking of you with the deepest tenderness. Sincerely yours."

Q—Is it correct to use the knife for cutting a salad?
A—Always use the fork, if possible. However, if the salad proves too difficult or awkward to cut with the fork, a knife may be used.

Q—Is it the usual procedure for the bride to remove her veil before being seated at the breakfast table?
A—No; she retains her veil.

Q—Is it ever permissible to place an elbow on the table, while eating?
A—Not while eating. During the conversation before and after the meal is served, however, it is all right, although one should never give the impression of "lounging" on the table.

Georgia

First Lieutenant Stanley R. Rundell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Rundell, 1444 Jarvis ave., Chicago, who was recently recalled to active service with the United States Air Force, has reported to Lawson Air Force Base, Ft. Benning, Ga., to take over the duties of public information officer.

A wartime B-17 pilot with the 8th Air Force in the ETO, Lieutenant Rundell is a resident of Arlington Heights, where he was associated with the Suburban Supporting News Service, since leaving the service in November, 1946.

During his first tour of duty with the Air Force, in addition to serving overseas, he was stationed at Westover AFB, Mass., and Long Beach, Calif., and held the assignment of public information officer at Headquarters Ferrying Division, Cincinnati, Ohio and Love Field, Texas.

His wife is the former Miss Kathryn C. Butler of Chicago.

Presenting the younger generation

Elroy J. Winkelman Jr. (left) is the son of the E. J. Winkelmans, 529 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights. He is 7, has blonde hair and blue eyes and answers to the nickname of "Roy".

Roy, who is in the second grade at St. Peter Lutheran school, has a sister Janet, 11, who is in the sixth grade. Janet was heard over station WJJD Saturday, November 6, on the Quiz-down program with five other children who competed against Forest Park Lutheran school.

The tire and battery shop owned by Roy's folks attracts his interest and he spends most of his spare time there. Roy's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Winkelman, 710 N. Vail, Arlington Heights, and Mrs. F. W. Giesecke, 105 E. Davies, Arlington Heights.

Afternoons, Penny attends the kindergarten of South school.

Penny is the daughter of the H. A. Brown's, 129 S. Highland, Arlington Heights. Two cousins, David 4, and Ricky 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wollerman, 111 Patton, help make Arlington Heights a pleasant place to live as far as Penny is concerned.

Kathleen Anne, daughter of the J. E. Millay Jr.s, 122 S. Highland, Arlington, (third from left) has a great deal to live up to as she grows older.

Having her first two teeth before the age of 4 months has instilled her parents with the hope she will grasp an education as rapidly and as a consequence, they are already planning to ward a college education for the little girl.

Grandparents of the smiling miss are Mr. and Mrs. John Ness, Palatine, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Millay Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Dobbins, 304 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, feel they are fortunate indeed, to call curly-haired and blue-eyed Donald Michael their own.

Donald is the adopted son of the Dobbins and they say they intend letting Donald grow up knowing he was selected from a group of children at the time he was just 10 days old.

Donald spends most of his time watching children play in the school yard across the street from his home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McNeilly, 502 N. State road, Arlington Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hummel, Central road, Arlington, are Donald's grandparents.

Christmas Seals to continue fight to stamp out TB
Purchasers of Christmas Seals will participate in a three-pronged attack on tuberculosis, according to Herbert C. De Young, president of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county.
Since the first Christmas Seal sale in 1907, tuberculosis has been forced from first to seventh in the causes of death, De Young noted. But it still kills more persons between 15 and 44 than any other disease and costs America millions of dollars annually in care for the sick and in lost hours of work, he said.
"The tuberculosis germ and the typhoid germ were discovered within two years of each other. Today, one typhoid fever case is a rarity, but we still have thousands of tuberculosis cases—and deaths—every year."
"Even so, the tuberculosis death rate has been dropping steadily, and for the first time we can foresee the complete eradication of the disease. Some tuberculosis control specialists are hopeful that the job can be done within the next 20 years."
De Young said that as a result of agreements between the Institute and the Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium and the Cook County health department more than 300,000 persons will be X-rayed in Chicago and Cook county by the end of the year.

Homes, not autos kill most people

Traffic—traditionally the number one accident killer in America—has lost its dubious distinction, according to the 1948 edition of the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts."
There were 32,300 motor vehicle accident deaths in 1947 and 1,150,000 injuries. This was a three per cent reduction in deaths from 1946, and put home accidents in the number one spot last year, with 34,500 deaths and 5,200,000 injuries.

For those of you who were mildly shocked to find that my recommendations for reading in the field of sex education last week were titled "Disability Insurance," be assured that the boner was strictly typographical!

Today and next week I would like to talk about a much-mooted subject—the surgical removal of tonsils and adenoids. The pendulum of opinion has swung the full arc. Some physicians have advocated routine removal for all children. This was the fashion fifteen or twenty years ago; it is unusual to find a young adult with tonsils intact. On the other hand, a few voice the feeling that this procedure is harmful, "mutilating" and seldom, if ever, necessary. As is so often true in controversies of this sort, most medical men now feel that a true statement lies somewhere between these extremes.

The general indications for tonsillectomy may be summarized as follows:

1. The tonsils are so large that they interfere with swallowing. Occasionally one sees a pair that nearly touch in the middle. How can these youngsters get any food past such an obstruction?
2. The patient has repeated attacks of tonsillitis or streptococcal sore throat with high fever and marked exhaustion. In children susceptible to convulsions, this is an important factor.
3. The chronically infected tonsils are constantly acting as sources of new infection; these may pour toxic substances into the blood stream which act to prevent normal, healthy growth. Physicians have seen many children who gained weight and improved in health immediately after removal of a focus of chronic infection.

Removal of adenoids depends on similar conditions. However, the procedure may be more urgent than tonsillectomy because neglect leads to more disastrous results. I speak of the typical "adenoid face"—a stupid appearance in which mouth and chin hang open, the palate is high, the nose and cheek bones are narrow, and the voice is flat, nasal, and monotonous. Disposing of the obstruction in the back part of the nose and throat before the age of five or six will avoid these unpleasant consequences for children with enlarged adenoids.

If your child exhibits any of these symptoms, certainly adenoidectomy should be considered:

1. Noisy respiration (snoring) while awake or asleep.
2. Persistent mouth-breathing in the absence of a cold.
3. Chronic swelling of the neck glands, repeated severe upper respiratory infections, or unexplained fevers.

Ordinarily, if there is good reason to remove either the tonsils or the adenoids, both glands are taken out. This requires only a few minutes more and avoids similar difficulties in the future.

(More about tonsils and adenoids next week.)

State problems on program of farm meeting

With the 66th session of the Illinois state legislature scheduled to convene in January, farmers will do doubt draft some resolutions of wide interest at the annual meeting of the Illinois Agriculture Association, November 15-18 at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago.

These resolutions will serve as policy guides to officers of the farm organization in presenting agriculture's views to the state legislature.

Among the major topics delegates are expected to consider in drafting resolutions are the need for clarification and revision of some school laws, the need for new agricultural buildings on the University of Illinois campus, particularly for the Veterinary College and Home Economics department, the need for a permanent long-time rural road program and eliminating daylight saving time in the state. Many farmers have expressed opposition to daylight saving time.

Other matters of interest to farmers are expected to be presented to the resolutions committee when it goes into session on Monday, November 15. Any Farm Bureau member is entitled to present subjects to the resolutions committee.

Members of the Illinois Rural Youth organization will compete Tuesday, November 16, in speech and safe-driving contests. The latter contest will be held in Soldier Field.

DO YOU KNOW—

That the term "Dixie" for the South originated from a bank note issued by a New Orleans bank in the early days. These notes were printed in French and English and bore the French word for ten, "Dix". They became known as "Dixies" and the South as Dixieland.

Farm Bureau special train tour planned

More than 450 reservations have been sent in by Illinois farm couples for the three all-expense train trips to the American Farm Bureau Federation annual convention at Atlantic City, N. J. December 13-16. The trains carrying the vacationing farm couples will combine sight-seeing and vacation trips to and from the convention.

Two of the trains will go a southern route through Florida and up the Atlantic seaboard to Washington, D. C.

A third train will travel an eastern route through New York City, Williamsburg, Va., and United Nations headquarters at Lake Success.

Other train trips are being organized by farm bureaus in Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Georgia, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee, and California.

The Illinoisans will be given a taste of southern hospitality when members of the Alabama Farm Bureau take both train loads of Illinois farmers on a car tour to Wilson Dam on a part of the TVA system. Later they will be treated to a barbecue and rodeo at a large ranch near Ocala, Florida. Those going from Cook County are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Moehling, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pohlman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Urban Hoffman.

Those on the Eastern trip will visit U. N. headquarters at Lake Success, Williamsburg, Washington, D. C., Beltsville, Md., the U. S. Department of Agriculture experimental farm.

Deep watering essential now for evergreens

In brisk autumn days, the home owner has a tendency to forget the water requirements of his trees. In fact, he may even neglect to water them at all. It is important to see that all trees get adequate moisture, right up until the first big freeze, advises M. W. Staples, field supervisor of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

Evergreens retain their foliage throughout the winter and require a good supply of moisture to prevent drying out. It is advisable to water them as long as the soil will absorb.

In the winter, trees with deep-growing roots can secure their moisture from below the frost line. Not so with young evergreens, however. They not only need frequent and thorough watering before the real frigid weather descends but a protective mulch covering, as well.

THOROUGH SOAKING of the entire root system encourages growth downward. Roots tend to turn upwards seeking for moisture if there is an inadequate surface sprinkling. This, of course, makes for insecure root foundations.

One of the main causes of winter injury in evergreens is the lack of adequate watering before the big freeze hits. Right after the cold snap, there may be sunny days. These, however, may not be warm enough to thaw out the ground. Thus, evergreens may evaporate a large amount of moisture and not be able to draw any water from below the frost line. Some time later, the winter injury may be evidenced in the browning of the foliage.

Driver killed while fixing his truck

Donald R. White, 23, of RFD 1, Berrien Springs, Michigan, was killed instantly last week in an accident 3 miles north of Harvard.

White, who is employed by the Arco Motor Carriers of Chicago, was driving north in a new Studebaker pickup truck and was towing another. These trucks were being delivered to a dealer in Wisconsin. The tie-rod on the truck broke causing the truck to go across the highway, completely blocking it.

White did not put out flares but got out and was beneath the stalled trucks trying to fix the break when a truck driven by Stanley R. Fiscus, 37, 127 Bellevue Ct., Madison, Wis., struck the stalled trucks near the drawbar. White was mangled beneath his truck.

He Named Montevideo

Magellan, the famous Portuguese explorer, is credited with many things, and one thing more to his credit is the name of the city of Montevideo. In 1519, on his expedition up the Rio de la Plata, one of his sailors cried out in Portuguese, "Monte vide eu!" which means, "I see a mountain." Little did he know that he was looking at the later-day site of Montevideo, which took as its own the name the Portuguese sailor had given to it.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxins and impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter. The kidneys must remove from the blood the waste matter that is to be excreted.
When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness,
getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passage are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a discrete medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste.
Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed by the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

University Holstein herd rates high in classification

Twenty-one cows out of 51 in the Holstein herd at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture have been rated excellent or very good in an official type classification just completed by Clair Miller, official classifier of the Holstein-Friesian association.

"These animals are the best college herd I've seen," Miller commented. He has done considerable official type classification and judged Holsteins at the 1947 Dairy Cattle congress.

Two cows were judged excellent and 19 very good, reports E. E. Ormiston, assistant professor in charge of the dairy herd.

"We've never won such high ratings before," he stated.

Twelve other cows were classified good plus, 13 good, and five fair. One bull was judged very good.

This is the third time the herd has been classified. Ormiston explained. Other dates were in 1937 and June 1947. The plan is to have the herd classified each year from now on.

LAW on the FARM

The farm wife

The farmer's wife—as a matter of fact any married woman in Illinois—is indebted to the Illinois State Legislature for having given her the same contractual and property rights possessed by her husband.

In the absence of statute—at common law, in other words—a man and woman for many purposes become "one" upon marriage, and in most respects the "one" was formerly the husband. A married woman in Illinois now possesses these rights:

To sue for damage to her person or property without having her husband join in the suit.

To make contracts in her own name without her husband being included.

To have as her own, free from the husband's claim, any wages or income she may earn.

TO OWN and convey property in her own right, and to acquire property by deed, gift or inheritance in the same manner as her husband.

To enforce liens or other claims, commence foreclosure proceedings, and participate in business or corporate affairs upon the same footing as any male citizen.

But on the other hand she is "exposed" to certain legal actions. For example:

She can be sued without her husband being joined as a defendant and can be made to answer in damages out of her own property.

Her property or earnings may be proceeded against to pay for family necessities, even though the necessities were procured or contracted for by the husband.

SHE MAY NOT sue her husband for wages earned in his service—this disability is reciprocal. It has been said, for example, that a wife is not entitled to pay for nursing her husband during an illness and that a husband is not entitled wages for work performed on his wife's farm.

She cannot mortgage household goods and furniture, even though she regards them as her own, without securing her husband's signature. He is under the same disability.

According to Illinois Court decisions women as well as men may, under proper circumstances, be required to pay alimony.

Illinois farmers paid $3,405,495 hail losses

Illinois farmers have been paid $3,405,495.17 in hail loss claims by Country Mutual Fire Company as a result of crop damage this summer. Manager J. H. Kelker said today. Most of the damage was caused by heavy hail storms in August.

The claims paid were highest in the company's history and resulted from a series of storms that were probably more damaging to crops than any others on record, Kelker said.

On October 6 the company sent out checks totaling $445,615.61, probably a company record for hail claims paid in one day.

Besides record total claims payments for the year, the company's written premium volume and loss costs also established new highs. Premiums on Illinois field crops were $4,115,000, resulting in a loss ratio of 82.75 per cent.

Kelker said hail storms occurred throughout central and northern Illinois during August. The two most damaging swept northern and central Illinois on August 17 and again on August

Cattle guards will save time in closing gates

You can save all the bother of opening and closing gates, and your machinery can roll through the fence line nonstop, if you replace your gates with cattle guards, suggests Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

Some folks are spending over 25 hours a year just to get through one particular gate, according to Ben F. Muirhead, extension agricultural engineer in the Illinois College of Agriculture. Cattle guards can bring your gates and fences up to modern labor-saving standards, he says.

YOU CAN MAKE a cattle guard by digging a pit 18 inches deep across the lane at the fence line and covering it with a grating. For the grating you can use eight iron pipes, steel rails, or small beams, spaced 6 to 9 inches apart.

You can get more information about cattle guards from Farmers' Bulletin 1832. Just write to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., for a free copy.

Enter stock show

Some Cook county livestock breeders that have won national fame in livestock shows throughout the country will have large showings at the forthcoming 49th International Live Stock Exposition and Horse Show, scheduled for November 27 through December 4 in the Chicago Stock Yard.

Curtis Candy Farms will show beef cattle, sheep and swine in the show, officials announce. They will have 11 head of Shorthorns, and ten head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle in the breeding classes of the Chicago show.

Ten head of Shropshires have been registered by them for the breeding sheep division, and 18 head of Hampshire and 25 head of Yorkshire hogs will show under the Curtis Candy banner in the swine show. Delbert H. Kingston, superintendent of livestock for the Curtis farms, made the entries.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Faced by trouble, sickness or sorrow, far too many of us take refuge in the old saying, "this is my cross which I must bear." We accept our cross too fatalistically, and our reaction is too passive in nature.

I know of no one who does not have a cross to bear. In some people, it is a physical thing, some malformation of the body resulting from sickness or accident. In others the cross lies buried deep in our inner lives—some secret sin or a fear which we keep hidden in our hearts, and which we endure all the more fearfully because we could not bear to have the world know. We accept it as our "cross," but far from trying to overcome it or to live happy useful lives in spite of it, we become cynical and are filled with great self pity.

Perhaps a great deal of our trouble lies in the belief that Christ, with the Cross of Calvary on his shoulder, bore His burden meekly and went to his death without complaint.

BUT THE BEARING of the Cross and Christ's agonies upon it were a necessary part to a definite end. Much as His body and the human part of His nature rebelled, he was encouraged to go on to the end by the knowledge and inspiration that there was a goal in sight, and that goal was not death. It was eternal salvation. Christ bore

His cross to the end, but that end was triumph for us all. The lives of great men and women of our times and since the beginning of history have been patterned along these lines. Napoleon, a little man, was hampered by a feeling of inferiority because of his size—but this very cross which he had to bear drove him on until he became one of the world's greatest conquerors. Byron, with his club foot, excelled in poetry. Stevenson, carrying the cross of tuberculosis, wrote deathless poetry and prose. Roosevelt, crippled by paralysis, became president.

THESE MEN accepted their cross, and went on to triumph. Perhaps few of us will ever achieve such greatness. We can, however, achieve happiness and avoid frustration by setting a goal no matter how small, and striving courageously forward to triumph, or at least gaining the personal satisfaction of knowing that in spite of our cross we honestly did our best.

Gems of thought

Desires
Happiness consists in the attainment of our desires, and in having only right desires.

—Augustine
A wise man will desire no more than he may get justly, use soberly, distribute cheerfully, and leave contentedly.

—Richard E. Burton
Our nature is inseparable from desires, and the very word desire—the craving for something not possessed—implies that our present felicity is not complete.

—Thomas Hobbes
There is nothing capricious in nature; and the implanting of a desire indicates that its gratification is in the constitution of the creature that feels it.

—Emerson
Desire is prayer; and no loss can occur from trusting God with our desires, that they may be molded and exalted before they take form in words and in deeds.

—Mary Baker Eddy
Therefore I (Jesus) say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

—Mark 11:24

Need a genie?

"The story of Aladdin and his magic lamp may be unbelievable," stated Mrs. Fred Steingraber, 170 Drury Lane, Arlington Heights, "but so are your want-ads."

"Although I had intended running an ad for household help in your paper over a period of a month, I found I had to call in a cancellation to the ad a few hours after the paper appeared on the stands because of the overwhelming response."

"I spent a busy Friday morning calling friends in an attempt to place the surplus of efficient workers I interviewed."

"I'm so happy, I don't even mind doing the dishes today."

Don't Leave the Leaves

Outer green leaves of vegetables are rich in food value and can be used in a number of ways. Shred the outer leaves of cabbage and lettuce to use in salads; or chop and cook them if they are tough. Cook the tender leaves of cauliflower and broccoli along with the rest of the vegetable. Add celery leaves, fresh or dried, to flavor soups, sauces and dressing. And young beet and turnip tops are tasty vegetables when fresh. Cook them; don't throw them out.

How Are Your Smoking Manners?

"Butt" definitely, say the social arbiters, "most smokers need to check their manners occasionally and see that they are up to par." With more than 70 million men and women today smoking 335 billion cigarettes and 6 billion cigars, the tobacco traffic is heavy enough to make it necessary for everyone to observe a few basic rules of the road.

Just plain consideration for others will solve the problem. With the exception of lipstick stained butts, which is a prime masculine complaint and easily solved by blotting off excess lip rouge on a tissue, smoking faults are no respecters of age or sex. The chief violations for a fastidious smoker to check himself on are—ash scattering, stained or chewed butts, overflowing ash trays, butts left to smoulder on table edges or doused in coffee cups or dessert plates, and the smoke screens laid down by nervous smokers.

With an eye to good manners, as well as feminine approbation, the Cigar Institute of America offers a gentle offside hint to its he-man group of smokers. Please, they ask, don't chew or mangle your cigar or leave it clamped in the teeth during conversation. It's not fair to your wife—or your cigar.

Joan and Harry Davis, happy married couple of the radio serial "When a Girl Marries"—illustrate a perfect in polite society above, while Harry at right demonstrates how "not to" treat cigars and wives.

Lesson in English

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "A large per cent of the profits go to charity." Say, "A large percentage of the profits goes to charity."

Do not say, "The question as to his record was not discussed." Say, "The question of his record."

Do not say, "Persons entitled to refunds should call for same at this address." Say, "should call for them."

Do not say, "She has lots of beautiful paintings." Say, "She has a great many beautiful paintings."

Do not say, "I hope you will still continue to help me." Omit still.

Do not say, "They could not disturb his equanimity of mind." Omit of mind. Equanimity means "evenness of mind."

Words Often Mispronounced

Licorice. Pronounce lik-o-ris, both i's a in it, o as in no, and not lik-o-rish.

Burlesque. Accent second syllable, not the first.

Horrid. Pronounce the o as in on, not as in no.

Duty. Pronounce the u as in mule, not as in rule.

Inimical. Pronounce in-im-i-kal, all i's as in it, accent second syllable.

Hoof. Pronounce the oo as in boot, not as in book.

PROPTIOUS; attended by far.

Words Often Misspelled

Assent (consent). Ascent (a rise). Accent (a stress). Frontispiece; observe the first i. Canvas (one s); a coarse cloth. Canvass (two s's); to solicit. Guarantee; observe the ua and ee. Pseudonym, pronounced su-do-nim. Rhythm; observe closely all consonants.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

REGENERATE (verb); to reform completely. "One great thought breathed into man may regenerate him."—Channing.

Bits o' business

Interest in cotton textiles is picking up, as a result of lower prices. Stocks of lumber are accumulating, and the price of soft woods at least should be slightly lower in 1949. Tobacco won't be any cheaper next year. Support prices are higher both for burley and flue-cured tobaccos.

Social security card not check insurance

Every year many business people are defrauded by individuals who pass worthless checks, using social security cards for identification purposes, according to Edward N. Novotny, social security manager at Evanston.

The Social Security Administration frequently issues warning to business men not to accept a social security card to identify a person cashing a check. Possession of a card does not mean a person has a bank account, nor does it always mean he is the individual he claims to be, for many cards are lost or stolen each year.

Since social security records are confidential, it is impossible to give addresses to business or police officers trying to trace passers of bad checks. But even if that were not so, the administration does not keep a record of current addresses.

A representative will be in Des Plaines on Tuesday mornings from 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon. Claimants for social security benefits or other interested persons may contact him at Room 6, Post Office Building.

Distribution of Metasequoia

Genus Metasequoia is a conifer which was widely distributed over the northern hemisphere in past ages. Its fossil remains (wood, leaves, cones) have been found in Alaska, Greenland, Spitzbergen and northern Siberia, in rocks of Eocene age (60 million years old), in rocks of Miocene age (30 million years old) in Oregon and California, Germany and Switzerland, Manchuria and Japan. It was considered to have become extinct, some 20 million years ago, since its fossil remains did not occur in rocks younger than Miocene.
